Riffian Offensive Drives French Back

KRIM OPENS NEW ATTACK IN MOROCCO

Of course the real side to take is that of China. Whatever, the temporary governmental helplessness of the Chinese, their permanent interests are ours. There must be no domination of China by any one outside power, and if necessity should compel temporary guardianship by all the powers, it would be tolerable only in the hope that they would jealously watch each other. All the Chinese people themselves ask of any government, native or foreign, is that it let them alone. A government just strong enough to do that, and to make everybody else do it, is ideal for China. At any rate, China must be neither the tool of Japan nor the victim of Russia.

PETITION FOR ANNULMENT OF MARRIAGE LOST

Another chapter in the drama of young Irene Neeley's elopement with W. H. Seale, Anaheim, nearly two years ago, was written today in Superior Judge R. Y. Williams' court, where a petition to annul the marriage was denied.

It marked the second success of Irene in cleaving to her husband, over the determined and unrelenting opposition of her family and their efforts to separate the couple.

Today's chapter was brief, and it took a few remarks from Judge Williams anent the growing habit of eloping girls, tiring of their "trial marriages," inducing their parents to annul the ceremony and thus procure a "quick divorce."

Although the case of Irene did not fall in that class, it was agreed, the court refused to grant the annulment because the parents had waited nearly two years before invoking the law, and the testimony showed that they had, soon after the marriage, evinced a willingness to accept matters.

Willing For Trial

"This looks as though they were willing to give the marriage a trial and then, finding, as they claim, that the girl was not treated right, they decided to have the marriage annulled. The annulment law was never meant as a vehicle for a divorce action. There is a growing practice in our courts of using the annulment as a short cut to divorce, eliminating all the delays that hedge the divorce. The girl, under legal age, elopes and marries without consent of her parents. Then, if she isn't satisfied with her trial marriage, she gets papa or mamma to come into court and annul the marriage. The petition is denied."

Irene and her husband were not in court today, having left the fight in the hands of their attorney, A. E. Koepsel, of Orange. Koepsel said he did not know their whereabouts, but understood they were somewhere in Mexico. He admitted hearing rumors that they have remarried in Mexico. They were first married when Irene was only 14, it is alleged. She is now said to be 16.

Files Perjury Complaint

Immediately after the marriage, Mrs. Irene Neeley, of La Habra, the girl's mother, filed a perjury complaint against her son-in-law, but a reconciliation was effected and the complaint dismissed.

A few days later, the bridegroom applied to the courts for a writ of habeas corpus, telling a harrowing story of the kidnapping of Irene by her family, and his encounter with violence when he sought to rescue her. The court restored his bride to him.

Some time later, Irene brought a suit for divorce, but later dismissed it, and returned to her husband. Only recently the couple petitioned the courts for an injunction against the Neeley family, to halt alleged persecution. The petition, which asks $2000 damages, is still pending in court. Today's annulment proceedings represented the counter move of the parents.

From any fruit —

Delicious Jams
and Jellies every time

OH, it's so easy now! Before, no matter how experienced you were, you could never be sure—sometimes jelly and jam just didn't turn out. No amount of care seemed to positively safeguard you.

But you never have a failure with Certo—no desperate re-boiling—the most difficult fruits jelly perfectly. For Certo is the substance in fruit that makes it jelly—fruit can't jelly without it.

This jelly-making element is completely lacking in some fruits, others have only a little, and even in the fruits that naturally contain most of it, it gradually diminishes as they ripen. But now, because Certo itself supplies the all-important jelly-making property, you can make your jam and jelly of the richest ripe fruits—those with the finest flavor and loveliest color. You can even use fruits that have in themselves no jelly-making property.

So easy — so quick — no juice and flavor boil away

Less than 15 minutes from fruit to jam or jelly! Certo means that just one minute's active boil is needed. No more standing stirring over a hot stove—no long boiling that reduces the amount of your jelly—no loss in steam of flavor, color and juice.

Certo's brief boil saves you all the fruit that used to boil away. When you count up the cost you will find that with Certo you have half again as many glasses as you ever got from that much fruit. Millions of housewives now use Certo all the time. Your grocer has Certo. Order a bottle right away. Douglas - Pectin Corp., Granite Building, Rochester, New York.

Court Notes

Gets $6100 Damages

Superior Judge R. Y. Williams today handed down a judgment in the damage suit brought by Herman Kolberg, rancher, of Orange, against the Sherwin-Williams Paint company, allowing Kolberg $6100 damages for injury caused by his orchard and orange crop by citrus-mulsion spray, sold by the paint company. Kolberg had sued for $20,000 damages. The case was tried several weeks ago.

The court allowed $700 per acre for damage to about six acres of trees, the balance of the award covering damage to the crop, it was stated.

Much expert testimony regarding the Kolberg grove and the spray used was given at the trial, showing that the defendant company had withdrawn the spray from the market soon after it was first introduced, because of warnings that it was proving injurious to trees and fruit. County Horticultural Commissioner A. A. Brock, Leon Whittell, of Villa Park, and other citrus authorities of the state were witnesses for the plaintiff.

Sentenced to 30 Days—Bob Chambers, a cripple arrested at Laguna Beach on suspicion of breaking into the H. C. Young store at Salt creek, near Laguna, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail for vagrancy today.

Justice K. E. Morrison, passed sentence when Chambers pleaded guilty. A burglary complaint had been issued originally, so that Chambers might be held for investigation, but this was dismissed when the prosecution failed to secure proof that Chambers was the burglar.

Awarded $2300 Judgment

Fred A. Dyckman, of Anaheim, won a $2300 court victory over Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Luce yesterday, when Superior Judge Z. B. West gave him judgment for that amount in connection with two promissory notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Luce had given the notes to the Morris Realty company, of Anaheim, as a commission for the sale of their $50,000 orange grove to Mr. and Mrs. George Meade. The sale agreement was later cancelled when the Meades failed to make a $7000 payment and Mr. and Mrs. Luce claimed that the real estate agents had agreed to cancel their commission. Payment of the notes was refused. Dyckman had purchased the notes from the Morris company and brought suit on them.

Testimony on the question whether there had been an agreement to cancel the commission was flatly contradictory. Mr. and Mrs. Luce and their attorney, William P. Webb Jr., testified regarding alleged promises to cancel, made by Earl Morris and W. L. Morris, in conversations at Webb's office. The Morris brothers denied that any such conversations had occurred.

Attorney Homer G. Ames represented the plaintiff.

Asks $10,350 From Railway.

Charles M. Callahan, of Santa Ana, today had filed suit in superior court against the Pacific Electric Railway company, asking $10,350 for the loss of his little daughter, Sylvia, 4, who was killed by a P. E. car at Anaheim Landing last June. Attorneys Bishop and Wellington and O. A. Jacobs represent the plaintiff. Having knowledge that the beach at that point was popular with holiday visitors, and having no bells or warning signal on its track, the railway company was negligent and responsible.

EXHIBITS FROM INDUSTRIES OF COUNTY WANTED

An industrial exhibit, with every manufacturer in Orange county represented, is the plan of the board in charge of the county fair, to be held in Santa Ana September 22 to 26. A space 10 by 120 feet will be allotted for this purpose.

"It is our ambition to make the fair representative of all the industries in Orange county," declares A. M. Stanley, manager, in a letter sent to members of the Advertising club, requesting their suggestions on ways of financing the project and also asking for slogan suggestions. "We recognize that the public is not generally conscious of the vast amount of manufacturing that is carried on in Orange county, and it is our hope to awaken them to the importance of the products made in the vicinity.

"The space which we will set aside for the industrial exhibits will be located on the right hand entrance of the main tent. The space allotted will give every manufacturer an opportunity to display his goods in an attractive manner."

The matter of financing the exhibit proposition and that of suggesting a catchy slogan for the fair will be taken up by the Advertising club at its next session.

Fowler Admits Fighting

"Yes, we had a fight, all right," Clarence Fowler of South Garney street, admitted today when arraigned before Justice K. E. Morrison on a charge of battery preferred by Sam Balcyce, his erstwhile antagonist. Balcyce lives at 320 West Seventeenth street. Fowler, however, decided to wait awhile before entering his plea to the charge, and the time for doing so was fixed at 9 a. m. next Friday. Fowler posted $50 bail for his release.

Stark Gets Hearing

Tom Stark, of Santa Ana, was today receiving preliminary examination in Justice K. E. Morrison's court, where he is charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor. Police Officer V. F. Mohn arrested him on the charge June 3, on South Main street. Stark has appeared before on a similar charge, it was said, but was not found guilty.

Given Week's Respite

Leo Tiner, Los Angeles motorist, who faces a $250 fine here for alleged reckless driving on West Fifth street, at Garden Grove road, today gained a week's respite in which to raise funds for paying his fine. Justice K. E. Morrison continued the case to June 16. Turner was arrested May 26. Attorney O. A. Jacobs represented him in court.

Divorce Is Asked

In a complaint on file today in superior court, H. O. Myers asked divorce from Carmelita Myers, charging desertion. Attorney O. A. Jacobs is counsel for the plaintiff. The complaint states that the couple married December 23, 1922, and separated May 1, 1924.

Correct Clothes To Meet The Obligation Of Every Occasion

SCARFS GETTING GAY
Where the most taste should be displayed in dress the least taste is customarily evident—in the scarf. If you run the tail of your eye along a group of men you will be astonished to notice how little character and personality are expressed in their cravats. Frequently, the patterns are as stereotyped as many beads threaded upon a single string. Usually, the colors are as nondescript as a succession of telegraph poles viewed from a car window. Many men, perhaps doubtful of their ability to choose wisely, stick to plain shades or "genteel designs" or "something that anybody can wear." It is all rather sad, for the scarf plays a very important part in the theme of dress. Yes, it may truthfully be said to style a man's whole appearance, for it is the central or converging point upon which the glance of the observer lights and rests.

However, due to the increasing use of bolder effects in every detail of men's dress, from hat to hose, we are going in for brighter colors in cravats this season. A simple and effective way to match your scarf with everything else is to lay scarf, shirt and coat side by side and try different blending effects. Thus, you can readily see what harmonizes or contrasts and what doesn't. Merely pulling a scarf out of the drawer or off the holder is going at it blindfolded. It takes a little time and trouble to do it the right way, but it's worth it if you regard dress as something more than a covering of the body and as an expression of taste, character and personality.

Polka dots, as shown here, are a standard, almost a perennial, pattern in cravats. They come in various spots upon differently colored grounds. Their attraction is that they may be as bold as your fancy prompts, yet they are never loud because of the quiet background and even spacing of the figures. Polka dots are favorites among well-dressed men the world wide and their vogue is greater than ever. The second design reveals a startling zigzag cross stripe.

On 113 boys and girls was bestowed the final approval of the high school faculty, and the Anaheim institution marked the close of another year of successful work by this record number of graduates.

The exercises opened with a high school orchestra selection, "Roman" march; followed by a song "America, the Beautiful," class; invocation, the Rev. Report Shows Swimming Pool Is Kept Clean

The Y. M. C. A. slogan, "Safe, Sanitary Swimming," was thoroughly justified when the Orange county health department report on the condition of the water in the swimming pool was submitted. "Y" officials declared today.

The county health department makes tests of the water at regular intervals, and the results are uniformly satisfactory, but the present test is of exceptionally high grade, it is asserted. It shows all tests for dangerous germs to be negative, and, in addition, it indicates a bacterial count of 6 per c. c., which is so low as to be negligible.

It would be perfectly safe to drink water as nearly sterile and pure as this indicates, it is pointed out. In fact, much water is used for drinking which is far less pure, Y. M. C. A. officials say.

The Y. M. C. A. pool is kept pure by means of a sand filter, used in connection with chlorine. The filter keeps the water clear, and the chlorine sterilizes it. A vacuum cleaning arrangement is used to draw the sediment from the bottom of the pool, and this, with the constant circulation through the filter, serves to keep the pool water clear and sparkling.

Every effort is made to keep the pool in safe and sanitary condition, it was added, and the health department reports indicate success in the efforts.

Dye Is President Of Baptist Club

Roland E. Dye, scout executive of Orange county, was elected president of the Men's club of the First Baptist church at the monthly meeting held in the church, Tuesday night. Other officers named were: Vice president, J. P. Williams; secretary, Ben Brubaker; treasurer, Harvey A. Riter.

The principal speaker of the evening was the Rev. Will A. Betts, who told of the value of cooperation in men's club work.

The musical program consisted of whistling solos by Miss Mildred Marchant, accompanied by Miss Smith, and piano solos by Miss Hartman.

Taylor President Of Forensic Club

Officers for the next year's Forum club of the Santa Ana polytechnic high school were elected yesterday afternoon when the organization held a picnic in Orange county park.

Fred Taylor was elected president of the forensic society. Other students voted to office were: Miss Virginia Brannon, vice president; Miss Katherine Best, secretary-treasurer; and Malcolm Isaacson, parliamentary.

Games, dancing and other amusements were enjoyed at the picnic.

Balloonists Land On German Vessel

LONDON, June 11.—W. T. Van Orman and C. K. Williams, of Akron, O., pilots of the balloon, Good-year III, in the Gordon Bennett cup race, are well aboard the German steamer Vaterland, Captain Norgmann reported, and hope the United States won the race—which it did not.

A wireless from them says they landed squarely on the Vaterland, thanks to wonderful maneuvering by Captain Norgmann.

The Belgian Prince Leopold, by landing in Spain, won the race with around 800 miles to its credit.

SOLDIER DEAD TO BE HONORED BY GRADUATES

Preliminary to the baccalaureate services at polytechnic high school Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock, will be a memorial service conducted by members of the graduating class at the monument erected on the school campus as a memorial to Santa Ana high school students who lost their lives in the World war.

The services, at 7:15 o'clock, will be centered around the monument erected by Daughters of the American Revolution and will be in charge of Miss Goldie Jacobson. The senior class will attend in a body and has extended an invitation to anyone interested, to be present and share in the exercises.

Miss Jacobson will introduce the Rev. Perry F. Schrock, pastor of the First Congregational church, who will offer the invocation.

Three officers of the American Legion will bear the colors and will stand at the monument throughout the services. Emil Faust will give a patriotic reading and Miss Jacobson will present to the graduating class of 1925, the memorial plot and the responsibility of maintaining such appropriate services yearly as a trust. The exercises will close with the sounding of taps by Robert Vawter, after which the graduates will form in a body to march into the auditorium for the baccalaureate sermon.

Y. M. C. A. BARBECUE IS BEING PLANNED

The first annual Y. M. C. A. barbecue is planned for Thursday, June 25, according to Charles H. Chapman, chairman of the social committee of the Santa Ana association.

"We have a splendid barbecue pit in our playground, just north of the building," said Chapman, in speaking of the event, "and we propose to bring it into use on June 25 for a big time. We are making it a family occasion for our members, and we shall be glad to welcome those who are not members, who care to mingle with the Y. M. C. A. crowd."

"There will be a program of games and athletics on the playground, beginning at 5 o'clock. Bob Russick, our physical director, will be in charge, and he is arranging for a baseball game, volleyball games, by men and by women, foot races and other contests for the boys and girls, and a general good time for all. The big event will be the barbecue dinner, at 6 o'clock, when the pit will be opened, and the food placed where all can 'come and get it.' We shall serve dinner out doors, and there will be a short program of entertainment following the meal."

Purpose of the affair, according to Chapman, is to help the Y. M. C. A. members and their families get better acquainted, and in general to promote sociability.

"There is just one thing about it, though," said the chairman. "Anyone who wants to have a share in the feast will have to get his ticket early, for we are going to prepare only for those who secure their tickets by June 23. We must order our food early and get it on the fire in time for it to be well done, so we hope that no one will delay in making his reservations."

Not to be outdone by Charlie Chaplin in his successful fight to protect infringement on his famous "make-up," a Chicago actress has entered a claim that a particular pose, which she assumed while being photographed, "is all her own," and that no other actress or photographer has the right to appropriate such pose.

S. A. Men Will Attend Kiwanis Club Gathering

F. T. Smith, local Santa Fe agent, and H. G. Nelson, principal of Julia Lathrop junior high school, will depart next Wednesday for St. Paul, Minn., where they will attend the ninth annual convention of Kiwanis International, as delegates from the Santa Ana Kiwanis club. It was announced yesterday at the meeting of the club. The convention convenes on Monday, June 22. It is expected 5000 Kiwanians will be present at the annual conference.

Announcement was made also of a zone meeting of clubs of Orange county and Whittier at St. Ana's Inn, tonight. Dale King, of Fullerton, will preside. Agricultural matters will be discussed.

The club meeting next week will be held on the grounds at Taylor's cannery, the club yesterday accepting the invitation of Fred H. Taylor to be his guests. The program will be appropriate to Flag day.

T. A. Winbiger, who has just returned from a six months' tour of the world, was given a cordial welcome home. He made brief remarks.

Charles Tibbitts of the manual arts department of the high school, was obligated as a new member of the club.

Mrs. Arthur May offered the special musical program and entertained with two vocal numbers.

Police News

Santa Ana police have been asked to watch for three Watts girls, who are supposed to have left their homes there yesterday, in a truck with a stranger, presumably for San Diego and Tia Juana. A description of the girls has been furnished officers here with instructions to arrest the quartet, on sight. The girls are said to have left home without parental permission.

Joe Jenkins, 30, native of Germany, was arrested last night by Officer W. A. Swain, charged with vagrancy. He was lodged in the county jail.

Frank Kelley, Fullerton man, was arrested yesterday by Chief Criminal Deputy Ed McClellan, and lodged in the county jail. He is charged with being drunk.

Harold Manske, 17, and Jack Young, 22, were arrested yesterday by Herman Zabel, charged with vagrancy. They are being held in the county jail.

Clyde Ellis, Santa Ana, is again in the clutches of the law. Ellis was one of the victims of the dry raid made throughout the county last November, and has been in jail several times since then. Yesterday he was arrested by Chief Criminal Deputy Ed McClellan on a bench warrant from Los Angeles, where he is wanted in federal court on a charge of violation of the national prohibition laws. Ellis is being held here pending arrival of Los Angeles authorities.

Class Decides to Join Alumni Body

Graduating seniors of the Santa Ana polytechnic high school voted to join the alumni association of the school as a class at a meeting held yesterday afternoon.

Fred Forgy, president of the Santa Ana high school alumni association, brought the matter before the graduating students. He declared that membership in the body offered many advantages.

Invitation was extended to the students to attend the annual alumni banquet to be held June 20, in the Ebell clubhouse. According to Forgy, a good program has been arranged for the affair. Graduates of years past will be present at the gathering.

Mr. Gauer, it was learned, is secretary of the Ontario Boy Scout council and has served in the Chaffey community boy and girl work organization.

Her One Reckless Hour

When Dolly, an orphan, went on the stage at the age of seventeen, she was about as ignorant of life as a girl could be. To be sure, the star of the traveling company she had joined told her a thing or two—but Dolly was utterly unprepared to cope with the moral peril she faced when home sickness and loneliness led her blindly to accept the attentions of a perfect stranger in a Kansas town. That experience taught Dolly a lesson she has never forgotten. The details will hold you spell-bound. Dolly tells them under the title "Playing With Fire"—one of 18 absorbing features in July True Story Magazine. Don't miss it.

Betrothals Weddings Receptions

Miss Lois Wiggins Is Lovely Bride of Angelenan

Garlanded with flowers in all the richness of summer bloom, the first Presbyterian church last night was the setting for one of the loveliest weddings of June, that of Miss Lois Jean Wiggins to Robert Jameson Corbet, occurring at 6:30 o'clock.

Only about half a hundred of relatives and close friends had been bidden to the ceremony, but all united in declaring Miss Wiggins to be June's fairest bride and her nuptial ceremony one which will be remembered as perfect in every detail.

The altar was banked with asparagus plumosus fern and variegated blossoms. Soft twilight added to the charm and music gave the crowning touch. Mrs. Helen Stedman presided at the organ, playing "The Melody of Love," which was followed by solo numbers. Mrs. Nelson Visel who as Miss Holly Lash was a beautiful bride of mid-May, sang Cadman's "At Dawning" and Robert Brown sang "Because" by D'Hardelot.

As Mrs. Stedman swung into the stirring strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, the bride party entered. Miss Wiggins attended by Miss Ethel Smallwood whose blonde charm was a perfect foil for the bride's brunette beauty. Miss Smallwood wore a lovely frock of embroidered net with close fitting bodice and bouffant skirt, over apple green satin foundation. Her slippers were white and she carried a great cluster of sweet peas with maidenhair fern.

Dainty little Betty-Jo Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Willis Jr., for the second time this summer, was flower-girl, and scattered her posies from an enameled basket. Betty-Jo wore the exquisite little French voile frock with baby Irish yoke which she wore as flower girl at the Lash-Visel nuptials.

Mr. Corbet was assisted by Laurence Johnson as best man while two other close friends, Jack Lawson and Clifford Kenworthy, acted as ushers. All were in informal evening attire and each wore a white gardenia in his boutonhole. As Mr. Corbet took his place at the church rail before the Rev. William Everett Roberts, he was joined by his bride, entering the church alone.

Miss Wiggins was gownned in elaborately embroidered French batiste and lace worn with white slippers and stockings. Her veil was the beautiful one worn by Miss Gladys Burns when she became the bride of Frank Charles Armin two years ago and its tulle folds fell from the cap of exquisite rose point lace. This provided the "something borrowed" that, worn with "something old, something new and something blue," will assure her future happiness. Hand-some pearls, Mr. Corbet's bridal gift, formed her sole ornament save for a bouquet of bride roses centered with orchids and showered with lilies of the valley.

As the Rev. Mr. Roberts read the impressive ceremony of the Presbyterian church, Mrs. Stedman played a softly mellow accompaniment, using "Call Me Thine Own" and followed this with Mendelssohn's Wedding music as the recessional to which the young couple left the church. No reception was held, Mr. and Mrs. Corbet planning to leave at once for Catalina where the honeymoon will be spent.

Mrs. Corbet was to travel in an ensemble of tan Kasha with all accessories to harmonize. For the wedding ceremony, her aunt, Mrs. Minnie Newman with whom she has made her home for the past three years, was handsomely gownned in black satin with a corsage of flame-colored sweet peas. Mrs. J. L. Dennison of Los Angeles, mother of Mr. Corbet, wore a blond georgette ensemble costume with corsage of pink roses.

After the Catalina honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Corbet will return to Los Angeles where they will be at home to their friends at 3842 West Fifty-eighth place after late June. Mr. Corbet, a graduate of Occidental college, is Los Angeles sales manager for the Crescent Creamery company. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Wiggins of Earleton, Kans., and for the past three years has made her home in this city where she has made hosts of friends by her charm and her courtesy as a member of the sales-force at the Santa Ana bookstore.

Princess Juliana, who has now reached her sixteenth year and who in the natural course of events will one day occupy the throne of the Netherlands, is described by a recent writer as a plump-faired girl of the true Dutch type. She is a lover of all forms of outdoor sports. Her companions are carefully chosen for her, and she, like her recent predecessors in the House of Orange, has been taught that it is not becoming royalty to make a "stage play" for popularity.

Seventieth Birthday
Is Celebrated
As Surprise

Children and grand-children and a few close relatives of J. L. Cannon, assembled at his home, 621 South Ross street, last night to remind him that he had reached his seventieth birthday and to celebrate the event with a happy family party.

Mr. Cannon was quite surprised but entered into the spirit of enjoyment which marked the evening and he and Mrs. Cannon delighted their guests with reminiscences of their youth. A happy feature of the evening was when Master Lyle Cannon, youngest member of the family and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Cannon, presented a basket of fine handkerchiefs to his grand-father, each guest having contributed to the shower.

The serving of birthday cake in yellow and white with ice cream and coffee brought the evening's pleasures to a close.

Joining to shower their love and good wishes on the host were his wife, the gracious hostess, Mrs. J. L. Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cannon and son Loren, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Cannon and children, Juanita and Lyle, Mr. and Mrs. John Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Schlink, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hoff and Miss Mary Armstrong.

Santa Ana Maid Weds
While on Visit
In Nebraska

Friends of Miss Ethelyn May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cannon, 215 South Main street, were interested today in receiving an account of her marriage to Glenn F. Peterson of Fremont, Nebr., at event of Saturday, June 6, in Kearney, Nebr.

The wedding was a morning one at St. Luke's Episcopal church in Kearney with the Rev. A. H. Marsden officiating. Miss May wore a charming gown of silk crepe in blue and sand shades combined with Irish point lace, and carried American Beauty roses. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple were guests at the Midway hotel where a wedding breakfast was served prior to their departure for Council Bluffs and Omaha.

They are as yet undecided as to their plans and may come to Santa Ana to establish their home. Mrs. Peterson will arrive on June 18 for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. May, and it is probable that Mr. Peterson will join her later.

Mr. Peterson has spent the past year at Nebraska State Teachers' college in Kearney where he was a popular member of the Caledonian fraternity. He was prominent in glee club work and also in the Academy of Science and Mathematics. His bride is an alumnus of the Teachers college and of the Cumstock School of Expression at Northwestern University.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. held its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon in the Presbyterian church with Mrs. Mina Tibbels presiding. Mrs. Fannie Lash led the devotional service.

A vote of thanks was given the committee who so ably judged the essay contest of which Mrs. John Clarkson is superintendent. The committee members were J. P. Baumgartner, Dr. C. D. Ball and Mrs. W. M. Smart. Mrs. Adamson who has charge of the infant box, gave a splendid report, at an all day serving meeting; two complete layettes were made and turned over to Mrs. Leebick of the social service bureau. The members will meet again on Thursday, June 25, at the home of Mrs. Fannie Lash, 220 Cypress avenue.

Mrs. Harry Hayes sang two solos, "Song of Sunshine" and "I Passed Your Window." She was accompanied by Miss Carrie Seaton. Mrs. Estelle Harper, county president, was present for the program was "Social Morality" and was presented by Mrs. Hutchins, Mrs. C. P. Morris of Garden Grove, county superintendent of social morality, gave a splendid illustrated talk on the subject. The county executive meeting will be held at Birch park, on Tuesday, June 30, beginning at 10 a. m. and with a picnic lunch at noon.

A resolution passed was that the W. C. T. U. as representative of 1000 woman voters of the county, insist upon a closer vigilance being exercised by the sheriff and his deputies to prevent the wholesale delivery of the quantities of contraband liquor which, according to knowledge they possess, is being poured into the county from ships anchored near the shore-line. The resolution further commended the county officers for work done in apprehending and arresting some of the smugglers and promised co-operation in stamping out the menace.

Wedding Date Revealed
At Charming Party
For Miss Miller

The attractive home of the Elton R. Roehms at 2027 Greenleaf street, was opened hospitably yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Lory Roehm, youthful daughter-in-law of the home, entertained an assemblage of close friends, honoring the betrothal of an older son of the Elton Roehms, Cornish Roehm, and Miss Alice Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of 2610 North Flower street.

Card tables stood like white islands amidst a sea of flowers and guests found their places by means of tally cards in pastel tints to harmonize with the lovely flower colorings. A session of bridge resulted in victory for Mrs. Carl May who received an attractive prize with second prize awarded Mrs. Edward Ward, and consolation to Mrs. Henry Wright. When Mrs. Roehm distributed her gift packages in their pastel wrappings, she presented a guest prize to Miss Miller, a frilly bit of white silk and chiffon lingerie for her trousseau, its fairy-like stitches, all her own hand-work.

Following the gift bestowal, the hostess arranged her tables with embroidered linens repeating the motif of the function, and served a delectable two-course tea menu. Each table was centered with a softly tinted basket holding nuts and sweetmeats. Flowers at each place were cunning dolls in pastel frocks and that at the place occupied by Miss Miller, was in a bridal white with flowing veil, shower bouquet and a beautiful engagement ring, which was the charming manner in which Mr. Roehm presented his fiancée with her diamond.

Each wee doll bore a tiny message which disclosed to the interested guests the fact that Mr. Roehm would claim his bride on Saturday, June 20. In her pleasant hostess duties, young Mrs. Roehm was assisted by her mother and mother-in-law, Mrs. Carl May and Mrs. Elton Roehm and by Mrs. William Sylvester. It was matter for regret that Miss Miller's mother, Mrs. Fred Miller was prevented by illness from taking her place in the receiving line.

In addition to the assistant hostesses named, those present were the guest of honor, Miss Miller, the Miss Virginia Stewart, Malinda Miller, Stella Montgomery, Inez Petz, Marjorie Duckett, Elizabeth Roehm, Mesdames Edwin Holmes, Raymond Marsile, Helen McCullum, Roy Krueger, Eleanor Ensign, Lyle Richards, George Paul Jr., Ellis Wagner, Henry Wright, Edward Ward, Marian Jones, Carl May, Walter Garret, Tom Smith, Ersie Burns, Tom Green, William McConnell and the hostess, Mrs. Lory Roehm.

Municipal Auto Park
Custodian Wins
Fair Bride

The municipal auto park on North Main street was the scene of a quiet wedding of romantic aspects on Sunday, June 6, when the custodian, Wallace Ludwig, won for his bride, Miss Winifred Halstead, formerly of Minnesota. Immediately after the ceremony the young people left for a brief honeymoon in parts unknown.

Upon their return Tuesday night they were greeted by over a score of relatives and friends who showered them with gifts and friendly wishes. The evening was made most pleasant and one of the enjoyable features was the serving of ice cream with delicious homemade cake by the groom's mother, Mrs. Estelle Ludwig, assisted by Mrs. Edna Bowman.

The guests included the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ludwig, the hostess, Mrs. Estelle Ludwig, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Phillips and daughter Ethel and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Felton and daughter Lela Philura of Anaheim; Mrs. Ida Cumberland, Orange; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Holt, South Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. George Post, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Gettle, Mrs. Edna Bowman and Messrs. George Randall and Ben Nubey of this city.

Mr. Ludwig has been custodian of the auto park since the passing of his father, the late L. A. Ludwig, over a year ago. He will continue in that position and the young couple will share the home with his mother, Mrs. Estelle Ludwig.

Quiet Nuptials at Parsonage Home

A wedding of interest to a wide circle of friends was that of Miss Ruth Zimmerman, and Otto I. Jacobs which was a quiet event of last Saturday, June 6, at the parsonage home of the Rev. F. T. Porter, pastor of the First Christian church.

Miss Jeanne Nelson assisted Miss Zimmerman as honor maid and Russell Johnson was best man for Mr. Jacobs. Following the ceremony the quartette of young people repaired to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Albert Sanford, where a delicious wedding dinner was served to a guest group comprising the immediate members of the family.

For the past year the bride has been employed at the Charles Spicer store and the groom is connected with the Roehm-Sylvester company. At present the happy couple are honeymooning in Arizona, making the trip by automobile. Upon their return they will make their home with the bride's mother, Mrs. L. M. Zimmerman, 627 South Shelton street.

SANTA ANA'S FUTURE DEPENDS UPON ADEQUATE WATER SUPPLY LIPPINCOTT TELLS KIWANIAN

Introduced by Nat H. Neff, city engineer of Santa Ana and chairman of the program committee, as the most prominent hydraulic engineer in California, J. B. Lippincott declared yesterday, at a meeting of the Santa Ana Kiwanis club, that the wells and pumping equipment of the present municipal water system are inadequate to meet the demands of the immediate future.

Stressing this point, he declared that citizens of Santa Ana could not afford not to support the issue of $1,206,000 in bonds to be voted on Tuesday, June 23, to provide funds for a new and adequate system.

Delayed in arrival by an accident to a Pacific Electric car on which he was riding to Santa Ana and by a breakdown in an automobile he secured following the accident, the engineer was forced to limit his remarks to a few of the high points on the proposed water system and on a discussed county-wide program of conservation.

The attendance at the club meeting was large, representatives of other service clubs of the city being present.

Report Basis For System

Reading from the report he submitted to the city council as the basis for deciding on the proposed system, Lippincott touched upon various phases of the water supply and the availability of water for future needs both for irrigation and domestic consumption.

"Ground water studies indicate that the most advantageous location for the new wells for the city is in the central portion of the coastal plain, near the Chapman street bridge," the engineer said. "An emergency exists in Santa Ana which calls for prompt action."

Explaining that the coastal plain extends from the Pacific ocean to the base of Puente hills and Santa Ana mountains, and from the Santa Monica mountains to the San Joaquin hills, Lippincott said that the lowlands of Orange county form a part of the coastal plain. The plain has an area of about 775 square miles.

Pointing to the severe drain on the basin, he said that the artesian area of 315 square miles, in 1887, had been reduced to 58 square miles, at the present time. Today the level of a well near Signal Hill, Long Beach, is 60 feet below the surface, where, in the early days, it shot water 70 feet above the surface.

"Under the proposed system, the cost of producing 1000 gallons of water will be 6.3 cents, and the cost includes interest charges and retirement of bonds," the engineer said. "In laying out our plans, we estimated that Santa Ana would have a population in 1930, of 42,000; in 1940, 72,000, and in 1950, 102,000."

"In 1900, the per capita consumption in Santa Ana was 171 gallons in 24 hours; in 1924, it was 131 gallons, as against 112 in Los Angeles, 120 in Pasadena, and 100 in Fullerton."

Department Policy Responsible
"In my opinion, the policy of the municipal water department is responsible for the heavy consumption here. The credit allowed for unused portions of the monthly minimum is responsible, for it tends to extravagant use of water. I know of no other city with a similar policy."

The speaker said that the water situation here is no worse than

Highlights Of Talk By Lippincott

Here are some of the highlights in the address made to the Santa Ana Kiwanis club yesterday by J. B. Lippincott, hydraulic engineer, on the subject of the proposed municipal water plant. The bond election will be held on Tuesday, June 23.

Water is worth just what it costs.

Without a permanent and abundant supply of water, Santa Ana cannot expand and go forward.

Based on past census records, Santa Ana should have a population of 42,000 in 1930; 72,000 in 1940, and 102,000 in 1950.

If the proposed bond issue of $1,206,000 were based on the same per capita cost of the Los Angeles aqueduct, when bonds were voted for that enterprise, the issue here would be for $4,000,000.

Santa Ana's consumption per person is 131 gallons per day. This high consumption is due, in my opinion, to the policy of the water department in making a flat minimum rate and giving credit for unused portions of the minimum. This tends to increase extravagance in the use of water.

The site selected for water wells is in the best water-bearing district. The system is so designed as to tie into possible development of water in the Santa Ana river and bringing in of the liquid from Colorado.

The situation in Santa Ana classes the enterprise as an emergency measure. The city cannot wait for a conservation program. Conservation is a county project. In the ultimate completion of the whole program of conservation for the county, the system will be a practical and 100 per cent efficient unit.

California.

"We hear considerable comment on the cost of bringing water in from the Colorado river. Water is worth whatever it costs. If you don't get it you don't need it. You should not commit yourself to any project until you have solved the water problem—and, speaking of the Southland as a whole, the water problem will not be solved until 1000 to 1500 second feet of water are brought in from the Colorado. Without a permanent and dependable water supply, Santa Ana cannot grow and go forward, no more than can other Southern California cities which do not have adequate supplies.

"The situation in Santa Ana is critical—critical because of the inadequacy of the equipment and source of supply. The system outlined has been developed with a view to its utilization in the event of water development in the Santa Ana river or that water is brought in from the Colorado. The present plan has been developed as an emergency measure, and at the same time is designed to fit into any future plan that may be adopted."

County Conservation
In response to questions by J. P. Baumgartner, the engineer said that conservation of county waters is a county program, and that in event of the county carrying out a conservation project by damming the Santa Ana river, the system would be 100 per cent efficient—in other words none of the proposed system would be a loss or a waste.

T. B. Rowe, associated with Lippincott, explained briefly the operation of the proposed system, and said that should the conservation program be carried out or should Colorado water become available, the wells and pumps could be maintained for use in case of an emergency. The present plant will hold the same position to the proposed plant, if it is constructed, the engineer said.

In concluding his address, Lippincott said that the city should make it a point, in the future, if it can be done legally, to acquire stock of the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation company apportioned to areas that are subdivided into city lots. Pointing out that it has been the policy of the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation company to permit transfer of stock from property that has been subdivided to other lands outside of the city, but within the district served by the company, the engineer said if this stock had been acquired by the city there would be more water for the lands in the original district. Directing attention to the fact that virtually every community in the Southland is fighting for a greater water supply, with one community endeavoring, in a sense, to encroach upon the rights of another, the engineer sounded a warning of a possibility of this city facing, in the future, serious litigation in maintenance of a source of supply.

Edison Concern Will Soon Mail Dividend Checks

"Regular quarterly checks on the 6 per cent and 7 per cent preferred stock of the Southern California Edison company will reach Santa Ana and vicinity June 16," said District Manager Deimling today. This dividend amounts to $405,963, and is distributed almost exclusively in central and Southern California, where it flows into local trade channels and stimulates local business.

Since starting active sale of its stock to the public in 1917, the consumer-partners of the company have increased in number from a bare 2000 to more than 70,000.

"Everything points to a fine year for the Edison company," said Deimling. "We have had an exceptionally 'wet' winter in the Big Creek-San Joaquin district, and the completion of the Florence Lake tunnel has done away with the danger of a power shortage resulting from a protracted drought."

BOY SCOUT COUNTY RALLY PLANS MADE

With Boy Scouts, their families and friends present from all parts of Orange county, the quarterly Scout rally will be held in the Wilshire grammar school, Fullerton, Friday night, starting at 8 o'clock.

The program will commence with a tableau, during which star, life and eagle badges will be presented to Scouts who have qualified. Following this, a four-reel motion picture, "The Knights of the Square Table," will be shown. The film is furnished by the extension department of the University of California and is said to be one of the best of its kind ever made.

29 STATES-Supplied by 32 Folger distributing Stations-Now enjoy these pioneer products of the Pacific

Seventy-five years ago the pioneer coffee and spice mill of the Pacific Coast was established in San Francisco by James A. Folger. It was a modest plant, for in those days most housewives bought green coffee and roasted it themselves. But James A. Folger was a far sighted pioneer. He quickly sensed that high quality coffee roasted evenly and uniformly in commercial quantities would have an instant appeal to the Western housewife. He was right.

The business expanded rapidly. It grew with the country. The plant at San Francisco was constantly increased to meet the demand for Folger's products from the Coast States. Then, in 1900, Folger's Coffee was introduced in the Middle-West and South-West—the first Pacific Coast Coffee to be sold East of the Rockies.

So today in our Diamond Jubilee year it requires three complete plants and thirty-two distributing stations to supply Folger's products to the retail trade in 29 states.

On the first package of Folger's roasted coffee was printed this slogan: "Our Success is Dependent upon Quality." On such a foundation has the Folger business grown to its Diamond Jubilee year. Quality has carried through these seventy-five years and must always be in the product before it is given a Folger label.

That is our assurance to the hundreds of thousands of loyal Folger customers.

A Removal Sale Announcement!
We Must Move — Our Lease Expires

MEN'S HIGH GRADE Dress Shoes and Oxfords

Do you know, some of the shoe manufacturers where our shoes have been made have the reputation of making the best shoes made? Thousands and thousands of people are wearing these shoes all over the country but here focus yourself on the simply astonishingly low prices we are quoting on our entire stock of shoes. Values are written all over every shoe in the lot at their regular price, the famous Bostonian brands, the brand that has always meant Style, Value, Worthfulness—and now at our prevailing sale prices for footwear of equal worthfulness, could there be a stronger inducement for you to buy? Splendid varieties and plenty of sizes—but we advise you to hurry.

Dress Shoes and Oxfords

Here is a real treat in shoe values. This bargain in exceptional $7.50 shoes saves you $1.15. That is the reason why many men will be inclined to buy several pair. Bostonian brand Oxfords in the New Tan calfskin or Black calfskin, new square toe, Goodyear welt with rubber heel attached, some with the round heel edge; also high shoes.

This Store Hasn't the Sale Habit

You may know, as this is our first real sale in our 5 years of business in Santa Ana. You have read about sales and bargains until your faith in them has been shattered, but your idea of a sale and our idea of a sale and a bargain are just the same. Without a doubt there are no two words so greatly abused in merchandising circles as these.

If it were necessary to deceive you to get your patronage, we would rather close our doors. The usual way in announcing a sale is to give it some decoy name and then try to justify it by some makeshift excuse. We have no particular name for this sale but we have a sound reason.

Our Lease Expires This Month

The building in which we are now located has been sold and after the close of this sale we will be permanently located at 316 West Fourth Street, 2 doors east of the West End Theatre.

We will open our new store with an entirely new and larger stock of Men's and Boys' Shoes. With this end in view and to avoid the expense of moving our present stock we are placing the entire stock of Men's and Boys' Shoes in this selling event that will be long and favorably remembered.

This business was established 5 years ago. Honesty of purpose, Truthful Advertising and Meritoriousness are the rocks upon which this successful business has been built. No misstatements regarding quality, style or price of our merchandise has ever knowingly been made, either in the store or through any advertising medium, and now when we announce this sale and tell you frankly that you will get greater values here and now for your money, than has been your good fortune to receive for many, many years, you may come expecting superior quality shoes at ever so low a price and you will not be disappointed.

We can't pledge you our word that the stock will last throughout the seven day period, as we expect our shoes to go mighty quick at these remarkable prices.

This sale will last only 7 short days so we advise you to come as early as possible.

Boys' tan calf blucher style lace oxford, crepe sole $3.95

Men's Shoes $495

We don't care how many sales you have attended. We are going to give you values that will win. You can't think of buying shoes of the same quality for any where near the price of $4.95. They are made of Brown kidskin blucher styles and are a comfortable shape and style.

There's a Reason

As you well know, for 5 years this store has been handing out shoes that certainly have served men in the most satisfactory way because our shoe business would not have increased if we did not select the proper manufacturer in buying our footwear.

Our store is well and favorably known for dependable and stylish shoes; therefore nothing but our regular stock will be sold during this sale and regardless of how low prices may be, keep this fact in mind: that in selecting the leather and style of every shoe in the store, we considered first: quality, and that blended with the comfort to our customers in the wearing of these shoes, brought men back to our store when in the market for good shoes.

Men's Shoes $385

It is not often that men have an opportunity to participate in values like these. They are made of black and brown calfskin. All have Goodyear welt soles and rubber heels.

WORK SHOES

All go in this sale at the same proportionate reduction.

Wonderful Big MEN'S Shoe Values

This group consists of broken lots of high grade Bostonian brand calfskin high shoes and oxfords—in either black or brown. Also a few two-tone Scotch grain with Cordovan trimmings. They are genuine Goodyear welts and are built of solid leather throughout on lines that will give most service, comfort and keep their newness for a longer time. Good styles, good lasts, but they are odds and ends, not all sizes of each kind. That's the reason these $8 and $8.50 shoes are going at your choice per pair.

CIANFONI HAS WIDE TRAINING IN BAND WORK

BY CLYDE C. DOWNING
President of Santa Ana Municipal Band Association

To ascertain the versatility of a successful director of a band, one needs to attend a rehearsal. Unobserved, I was in attendance at a rehearsal of the Santa Ana band. In the center of the musicians stood Prof. D. C. Cianfoni, the director, ear attuned to every instrument in the band, physically alert and a veritable dynamo of energy and enthusiasm. When Director Cianfoni raised his baton, every eye was upon him. Down came the baton. To the average layman every instrument seemed in accord, but quick as a flash the director would drop his baton, dash to a certain musician, explain why and how he was not in accord, sometimes would take the instrument and himself play it to fully instruct the musician.

Before appreciating the importance of a band director, I often thought that the only man in a band who did not seem to work was the director.

Sketch of Career
Proceeding upon the theory of cause and effect, I believe the average layman would be interested in knowing something about Director Cianfoni's musical career, so that he can understand the foundation for his ability to successfully direct a band, and then fully appreciate the effect of such superb direction.

Cianfoni is a native of Arona, province of Novara, Italy, but is now a full-fledged American citizen. He is married and has three children, all born in America.

Cianfoni displayed musical talent at a very early age and received instruction from some of the leading band masters of Europe, among whom were Professors Tommaso Venetozzi, Murri, Marchini, Colombati and De Angelis. At the age of 18, he had developed into a band master, and at 21 years he was made soloist and instructor of the 74th regiment (infantry) band of Italy, and at 26 he was chosen as director of the municipal band of Arona, Italy.

To America in 1906

Coming to America in 1906, Cianfoni was selected to substitute for the director of the famous Trollo Royal band, and because of the musicianship and ability displayed in his work he was chosen as regular conductor of that musical organization and remained as such for two years, when the city of Wildwood, N. J., persuaded him to organize and direct a municipal band in that city. He was director of the municipal band of Wildwood for six consecutive years. This band included many excellent engagements, including the opening of the famous William Penn theater, Philadelphia; and filled engagements at Belmont park, Philadelphia; Bay Shore park, Baltimore; Young's Ocean pier, Atlantic City, and many other famous resorts in the east.

For five years Cianfoni was conductor of the Empire Theater orchestra, Philadelphia, and later organized a municipal band for Erie, Pa., which developed into one of the leading municipal bands of the east.

Newspaper Comment
Among the many press comments concerning the directorial talent of Cianfoni and the organizations directed by him, a few are as follows:

"Young's pier crowded every concert to hear Cianfoni's Italian band. There never has been an organization in this musical resort that has attained the success of this famous Italian band."—Atlantic City Gazette.

"Cianfoni deserved credit for the fine showing which the band made. Erie should justly feel proud of such an organization."—Erie Times.

"Fine musical talent was apparent throughout the performance in both ensemble and solo numbers, the whole co-ordinated through the artistic ability of Signor Cianfoni, conductor."—Atlantic City.

"Professor Cianfoni has built up a wonderful organization known in Erie as 'Cianfoni's Band of Fifty' and their appearance at any entertainment means a musical treat. I have known Professor Cianfoni for a number of years and the confidence and respect which his fellow citizens have for him speak well for his musical ability, refinement, courtesy and loyal citizenship."—Milton W. Shreve, Congressman, 29th district, Pennsylvania.

Benefit Concert Pictured
In order for us to gauge the musicianship and leadership of Professor Cianfoni, just imagine the following picture:
Perry Square of Erie, Pa., with 20,000 people assembled; 215 musicians forming the band and a chorus of 150 voices. Before the band and chorus and the 20,000 people assembled stands Professor Cianfoni. Can you conceive of any more testing time for a band conductor? The purpose of this benefit concert was to raise money for the invalid soldiers and orphans of the late World war. As a result of the enthusiasm aroused at this benefit concert, in one day the city of Erie, raised $10,000 for this worthy charity.

Back to the original theme of this article, you have read the cause and have seen the effect of Professor Cianfoni's musical ability in the musicianship displayed by the Santa Ana Municipal band.

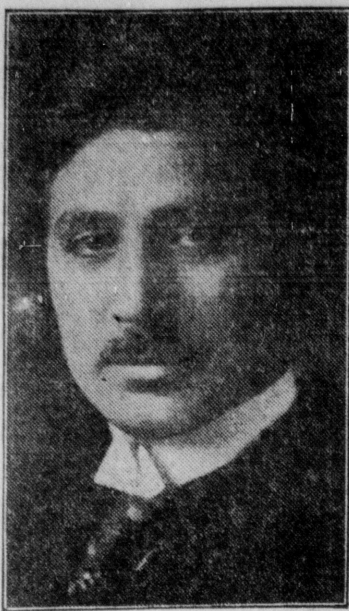

The week beginning June 15, is to be known as "Save the Band week," and through the press you will be advised where you can make your contributions toward maintaining the band and in retaining the services of a wonderful band master such as Professor Cianfoni.

PREDICT MANY DEVELOPMENTS AT J. R. COLLEGE

Toasts to "The J. C. News" marked the program at the annual banquet of the Santa Ana junior college, held last night in the Eboli clubhouse. More than 100 students, alumni and faculty members attended the affair.

With sharp retorts and lively toasts, student and faculty speakers reviewed the accomplishments of the year and predicted greater developments at the Santa Ana college. Erection of a separate building, independent of the high school, was visioned.

The permanent establishment of "The J. C. News" as a separate news sheet was declared to have been one of the major accomplishments of the staff for financial support were recounted.

In one of the toasts, Virgil Dunkin, student body president, told how the staff writers had given unstintingly of time and money to insure a paper for the college. An extended scope of wider success for the publication and the college was seen.

Speakers who gave toasts were Virgil Dunkin, city editor; Miss Martha Featherly, society; John McCoy, development; L. L. Boeman, proof; Miss Phyllis Oliver, joke; Robert O'Brien, sports; Mrs. Robert Northcross, supplement; Miss Dorothy Cartwright, J. C. Periscope, and Principal D. K. Hammond, editorials.

The program was presided over by Horace Perkins, as toastmaster. In addition to the addresses, musical entertainment and readings were provided. Miss Louane Leech and Miss Norma Forman gave readings. Vocal solos were offered by Miss Martha Featherly and Edward Hummel. Russell Rowland played several piano selections. The banquet was arranged as the closing college social function of the year.

L. A. REALTOR BUYS CANYON NEAR LAGUNA FOR $250,000

New Owner to Subdivide
Property Into Parcels
For Organizations

FOUR CLUBS PLAN TO USE BIG TRACT

Clubhouse, Small Pier and Playground Devices Are Proposed at Beach

Niguel canyon, one of the most beautiful canyons on the south Pacific coast, and the first unsubdivided tract north of Laguna Beach, has been sold to Bert L. Clogston, Los Angeles real estate man, for $250,000. It comprises 149.2 acres and is divided by the new Coast highway, a fill having been made through it for the roadway. It is planned to have four club organizations use the tract as a private resort.

This deal is the largest land sale ever made in Laguna Beach. It was owned by Messrs. Callender and Miles of Pasadena and was put over by "Gavvy" Cravath, famous runner of the big leagues, who is now a member of the firm of Cravath & Hall, Laguna Beach realtors.

Names Not Revealed.
Clogston is acting as intermediary for the four clubs, the names of which he is not prepared to divulge at the present time.

The plan is to devote the section of the canyon below the highway to club houses and pleasure grounds. Each club will have a five-acre tract for its clubhouse and cottages. Then there will be playground apparatus for the children, groves for picnic lunches, probably a small pier for fishing and floats for diving. The clubs will provide their own life saving apparatus and a life-saver in the busiest season.

184 Lots for Each Club.
The territory above the highway, or back into the canyon, will be subdivided into 736 lots, 184 of which will go to each organization. The deeds will read that they must be purchased by members of the organization and if resold, the new buyer must be a member of that organization. Here the club members will build either permanent or temporary homes to be used week ends or in the summer months.

According to Cravath, work will begin as soon as a lease now on the property expires. The voting of a water district recently by Laguna Beach by 100 per cent vote, 359 to 0, aided in putting the deal over.

Magnolia School Contract Given To W. Rohrbacher

Contract for the Magnolia grammar school, to be built on Magnolia avenue three miles west of Anaheim, was awarded yesterday to William Rohrbacher of Santa Ana. Rohrbacher's bid was $41,465.

Bids for the construction of the Springdale grammar school, to be erected two miles west of Wintersburg, will be opened June 16. Work has already started on the Diamond grammar school on Edinger street, southwest of Santa Ana, it is announced by Pay R. Spauler, Santa Ana, architect for the three structures. Theron Means is the contractor and the cost will aggregate $15,000.

COUNTY TO BE REPRESENTED AT PORT MEET

The Orange County Harbor Chamber of Commerce has been invited to send a representative to attend the port conference of Pacific Coast cities in Seattle June 24. Harry Welch, secretary, announces. The letter of invitation stresses the importance of this meeting, gathering in San Francisco of the which follows shortly after the Pacific Coast Association of Port Authorities.

The harbor chamber expects to have representation at both meetings. A paragraph of the letter from A. G. Arnoll, secretary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, regarding the Seattle meeting, follows:

"It is our conviction that every port city will very greatly benefit from a unified program of rivers and harbors development to club houses and pleasure grounds. Each club will have a five-acre tract for its clubhouse and cottages. Then there will be playground apparatus for the children, groves for picnic lunches, probably a small pier for fishing and floats for diving. The clubs will provide their own life saving apparatus and a life-saver in the busiest season."

According to Welch, port authorities from all sections of the country will be present at the Seattle gathering. A number of noted specialists will give talks, he says.

$50,000 PAID FOR PROPERTY ON SOUTH MAIN

Seller of Apartment House
Accepts Citrus Grove
As Part Payment

Activity in real estate is increasing and there is considerable inquiry for city and ranch property. Herbert D. Traveller, real estate broker, declared today in announcing the sale of the double apartment at 607-9 South Main street for $50,000.

J. R. Goodwin was the owner and he accepted as part of the consideration, the 14-acre orange and lemon ranch north of El Modena, on Santiago boulevard, owned by Jack Davis, who becomes the owner of the apartments. There are 11 apartments in the two buildings.

Traveller said that he understood that Goodwin would give his personal attention to the ranch property.

The sale of the apartments is one of the most important realty deals in South Main street property made in some months and the sales price indicates an advance in property values.

"The sale indicates that business conditions in Santa Ana are in excellent shape," said Traveller today. "Pessimists who would have us believe that Southern California is not in a prosperous condition should take note of some of the realty deals which are being made in this vicinity."

LICENSE SEEKERS HAVE QUEER IDEAS

The state real estate department is acquiring a choice collection of weird answers written to questions asked of applicants for realty licenses, if a list received here today by the local board of realtors may be taken as a criterion.

Needless to say, the authors of the following did not get licenses: "What is a conveyance?" "A conveyance is a vehicle used by the realty men to take sales prospects to their property." "What is a deed?" "A deed is a paper one gets when he makes his first payment upon a piece of property."

"What is a contract?" "A contract is an instrument given to the purchaser after the final payment is made on property."

"Is an oral contract binding?" "Not unless it is put in writing."

Soviet Airplanes Start for China

MOSCOW, June 11.—Three military and three civilian planes have started from Trotsky aerodrome on Russia's first great air expedition to China.

The flight, covering 5000 miles, must cross the treacherous Gobi desert with its varying wind currents, which are difficult to gauge. Premier Rykov bade the flyers farewell, hoping the expedition would prove valuable in showing Russian progress in technique and serve as a link between the Soviet union and China.

"The Torrens Title Law" is the title of a talk which H. J. Weeks, Laguna Beach, will deliver at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Santa Ana Board of Realtors at Ketter's cafe tomorrow noon, it was announced today by J. E. Livesey sr., president. Weeks is one of the best known title experts in the Southland and a large attendance of real estate men, bankers and attorneys is expected. A short musical program will be rendered, Livesey states.

PLAN TO STOP USE OF POOR GRADE STUCCO

Contractors who have been using inferior stucco and those who have not been placing good stucco on properly will not be able to continue their practices if the suggestions of Building Inspector W. S. Decker are included in the proposed building code.

Decker's ideas have been endorsed by the Orange County Builders' exchange. The proposed code was written by Mark Kohn in co-operation with the exchange and will be submitted shortly to the city council of the various municipalities paying for Kohn's work. A certain stucco material which has been found very faulty and if the inspector's suggestions are followed out, contractors will be unable to use this particular brand. It is also provided that stucco shall be put on in a substantial manner, and not merely "slapped on."

BUILDING PERMITS IN ANAHEIM SOAR

ANAHEIM, June 11.—City building permits for the month of June received a substantial increase today when a permit was issued for the erection of a new office building for the Industrial Fuel Supply company, at a cost of $14,000. The structure will be located adjoining the new Zion Lutheran church on Emily street, just off Center.

Offices have been maintained here for the past five years in a local bank building, but the business has grown to such an extent that it was found necessary to enlarge the quarters. Anaheim was chosen as the location for the new building since the city is centrally located between the various oil fields from which the company gets its natural gas. The company is a natural gas company, purchasing gas from the various oil companies, collecting, compressing and making it available for distribution.

The remarkable resonance of Stradivari and other famous old violins is said by a German scientist to be due to treating the wood with a rubber solution before varnishing.

ENGINEER GIVES PARTICULARS ON USE OF CEMENT

Builders Hear Interesting
Address at Monthly Meet
At Yorba Linda

Evidence of the use of cement by the builders of bygone days have been found in some of the structures uncovered in Egypt and Italy, J. E. Jellick, district engineer for the Portland Cement company, stated in a talk delivered at the monthly dinner meeting of the Orange County Builders' exchange in the Women's clubhouse at Yorba Linda Tuesday night.

Some form of natural cement was used in the building of the pyramids and the famous Roman roads, he said. Artificial Portland cement, however, has been known only for the last 100 years or so, Jellick declared.

Explains Process
The complicated process used in manufacturing the Portland cement from a limestone composition to the finished product were explained by the speaker.

Announcement was made that the exchange's membership campaign, scheduled to close July 1, will be continued until August 1. Reports of progress were received from committees engaged in evolving a uniform system of building codes for Orange county.

Plan Exchange Home
C. R. Harrison reported for the committee appointed to investigate the advisability of renting a downtown building to be used as a builders' exchange and following discussion, a motion was carried empowering the committee to consummate a lease on a suitable location.

That the development of uniform building codes is a slow and sometimes painful process but that active work is being done at the present time by committees empowered to act on the Orange county code was the report of Louis Allen, secretary.

President O. T. Moore announced that a meeting of the board of directors of the organization would be held at Ketter's cafe, Santa Ana, June 16.

END OF BUILDING SHORTAGE IS SEEN

Steady diminishing of the national building shortage, with over-building becoming a factor in some cities, is shown in a survey of the building situation just made by the National Association of Real Estate Boards as part of its semi-annual review of the real estate market.

The survey is based on reports made by constituent boards in 225 cities of the United States and Canada. There is still a shortage of single-family dwellings, the survey indicates. Thirty-two per cent of the cities reporting indicate a remaining shortage in this type of structure, 29 per cent a shortage in apartment buildings. Only 25 per cent report a shortage in business structures. No Canadian city reporting indicates any form of building shortage.

Sixty-seven of the 225 cities report over-building in some type of structure. In a similar survey made by the association in December, only 27 cities reported any over-building.

Building For Year Passes Million Mark

Building for the year to date passed the million mark yesterday, according to figures on file at the office of Building Inspector W. S. Decker. The June to date total is now $75,000.

Decker believes that June will prove one of the best months in the history of the department. With 15 building days remaining in this month, it is believed that the June aggregate will be in the neighborhood of $200,000.

FOUR STORES IN SANTA ANA TO MOVE SOON

Consolidation next Monday or Tuesday of the Sam and Harry Granz Army and Navy department stores at 316 West Fourth street and 304 East Fourth street, now occupied by the Electric Shoe Shop and the H. W. Thomas shoe store.

The expenditure of several thousand dollars will be involved in the construction of fronts, alterations and improvements in interiors and installation of new fixtures.

Most of the changes are the direct result of the purchase by Victor Walker, sporting goods man, of the property at 316 West Fourth street, now occupied by the Electric Shoe Shop and the H. W. Thomas shoe store.

Harry Granz, manager of the Army and Navy store at 316 West Fourth, stated today that he will move the stock of this store to the store at 304 East Fourth street, and that he and his brother, Sam Granz, will enlarge their business by taking over the second floor at that address. A big department store is the plan of the brothers, it was said.

C. W. Nussbaumer, proprietor of the Electric shop, and Thomas will move to the room vacated by the Army and Navy store. Nussbaumer said that alterations and improvements to be made at 316 West Fourth will give him one of the largest and best equipped shoe repair shops in the city. New equipment will be installed throughout. Thomas also will have a larger and more attractive room for his part in the double business enterprise.

Nussbaumer and Thomas expect to be located and ready for business in their new location by June 25. Walker will start at once remodeling of the front at 219 West Fourth street and will make other improvements in the room preparatory to moving his sporting goods store from 204 West Fourth to his own property.

It is understood that the room to be vacated by Walker has been leased to a local man who will move from his present location. The name of the store proprietor has not been revealed for business purposes, it was declared.

WARNS OF LIEN LAW PROVISIONS

Unless prospective builders thoroughly understand the operation of the lien laws, they may be forced to pay twice for the material in their home or building, according to G. B. Schneider, manager of the Washington Iron works, plumbing fixture manufacturers of Los Angeles.

"According to this law, even though you have paid the contract plumber or other workers on your building, even though you have a receipt or cancelled check proving that you have paid in full for materials used, you may still be obligated to pay for the same materials a second time," Schneider states. "Under the lien law, the owner of the building is responsible for payment of all materials used. If the plumber or contractor employed by the owner does not pay the man who sold him the materials, this man has a right to collect from the owner, even though the owner may have already paid the lumber merchant or contractor for that material."

Another frequent loss sustained by inexperienced builders is that of buying plumbing fixtures and then discovering, after installation, that the fixtures are defective. Heretofore, owners have had no recourse in such cases, but since the Washington Iron works now issues a written guarantee with each fixture, agreeing to replace it free of charge should it develop defects after installation, the owner can protect himself by insisting on a written guarantee when he purchases plumbing fixtures.

"Every builder should protect himself from paying twice for his materials or plumbing fixtures by engaging a thoroughly responsible contractor and plumber and by asking for a bond to cover the work."

"Questions as to the reliability of your contractor will be answered by the chamber of commerce, Builders' exchange, prosecuting attorneys, Washington Iron works and other established manufacturers."

Thirty-five hundred dollars will be expended by C. E. Gilmore of 823 North Van Ness street in the erection of house and garage at 907 Lowell street. F. L. Veatch is the contractor. The dwelling will have five rooms.

Mrs. J. N. Drake to Build.
Mrs. Julia N. Drake of 514 Vance street will build a residence and a double garage at 505 East Bishop street at an expenditure of $3500. The residence will be five rooms. Construction will be by day work. E. A. Walker, dealer in poultry supplies at 695 South Bristol street, has been issued a permit for the erection of an addition to his warehouse. The building will be 36 by 60 feet and will cost approximately $2000. Work is scheduled to start at once.

INSTALL BIG IRON CUTTER HERE

Giant cutter recently installed at Towner's manufacturing plant, snapped in the act of slicing a long strip of four-inch angle iron into short pieces. H. F. Towner, inventor of farm implements and founder of the business, is shown demonstrating the machine's power punch at the left.

H. F. Towner Purchases
Machine to Speed
Up Shop Work

One of the largest pieces of machinery used in machine shops has just been installed at the Towner manufacturing plant, 111 North Main street. It is a 12-ton Buffalo Universal iron worker that does the work of several other machines and a number of men, slicing and punching heavy sheet iron and severing iron bars. Angle iron formerly cut by the slower process of hack sawing can be chopped off by this machine to any desired lengths, with squared or mitred ends, as fast as a man can feed it through. A pair of steel jaws resembling huge scissors cuts or splits iron sheets five-eighths of an inch thick to any length or width as though they were made of cheese.

The punching apparatus of the machine takes a big load off of the power drills of the shop, besides saving time in putting holes of any diameter up to one inch through pieces of iron used in the manufacture of Towner's disc harrows and cultivators, and in making repairs on farm machinery. Removing congestion in the shop, this machine makes it possible for work to be turned out in an hour that formerly had to wait its turn for as long as a half day. The shears and punch of this giant are governed in their operation by a fly-wheel weighing 1600 pounds which develops a pressure of 800,000 pounds.

"We have installed the 'iron worker' to speed up the manufacture of our new cover crop disc harrows and other farm implements," said H. F. Towner, proprietor of the business. "It also enables us to turn out a quantity of machinery repair work in quick time that used to pile up at certain seasons. Such work necessitates the cutting, slicing and punching of iron parts, and the new machine does all this at a speed that means economy to our patrons, as well as prompt delivery of work. Visitors are welcome to see the machine in operation."

Banker to Return
And Face Charges

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—Webb H. Meserve, former director of the First National bank, of Excelsior Springs, Mo., has waived extradition and will return immediately to Kansas City to answer to charges of violating national banking laws.

Meserve was arrested in Culver City, where he was manager of the Pacific Southwest Trust and Savings bank, on an indictment returned June 1 in Kansas City. He is accused of making a false entry of $3,400 on June 7, 1922, while connected with the Excelsior Springs institution.

He was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner R. I. Turney here and released under $20,000 bonds. Meserve said today he had nothing to conceal and was eager to return to Kansas City and prove that he was innocent of any wrongdoing.

CEMENT COSTS PER MILE ARE LISTED

While the cost of concrete roadways varies with the locality and the pavement design, an average of $30,000 a mile is often given for an 18-foot pavement seven inches thick. Several thousand dollars fluctuation either way in the price would not be unreasonable, depending upon the locality in which paving is done, says the Portland Cement association.

For this sum, the community gets nearly 2 1/4 acres of pavements containing 2000 cubic yards of mixed concrete. This calls for 3400 barrels of Portland cement or 17 carloads. It calls also for 1100 cubic yards of sand, equalling 32 carloads. It calls likewise for 1600 cubic yards of crushed stone, which is 46 carloads. Into this mixture will have to be poured 300,000 gallons of water, which is 38 tank carloads. The total weight of this concrete would then approximate 4000 tons.

Before the cement could be delivered, 400 pounds of dynamite would be required to blast the rock which went into it. The fuel necessary to burn the rock would total 340 tons of coal, or its equivalent in oil or gas. While cement requirements are commonly measured by the barrel, it is usually delivered in sacks holding a cubic foot each. And 13,600 such sacks would be required for the cement in the mile of road. Thirteen bales of cotton would be needed for these. Into the cement would go 19 tons of gypsum, which is necessary to regulate its time of setting.

The U. S. army has developed a gun which shoots three miles farther than the famous French 75s, used so extensively in the World War. The weight of the two guns is the same.

Aerial photographs are being used in Connecticut for tax-assessing purposes.

WOOD TO PROBE MORO WARFARE

MANILA, P. I., June 11.—Governor General Wood is leaving here today for the province of Lanao for a personal investigation of the troublesome situation resulting from attempts to capture Sultan Raya, Moro bandit chief.

Fourteen Moros either were killed or wounded in the battle Tuesday between constabulary and supporters of Raya, the latest check revealed. Another stronghold of the rebels was dynamited but Raya and most of his followers escaped to the mountains, wrecking communications means enroute.

(Warfare between Moro followers of Sultan Raya and the constabulary has been frequent for weeks, starting with a rebellion in the spring during which many of the tribesmen were killed. A fortress shielding Raya and his band was destroyed two weeks ago but the chieftain and most of his supporters fled.)

A Church Founded on the Rock of Ages

What is more pitiable than a Church built upon the shifting sands of human philosophies—a Church rooted in barren professions, seeking to thrive in a worldly atmosphere—a Church bearing no fruit in souls saved—a sort of semi-religious club? Like other human institutions, it will fade as the grass of the field—for it has lost its soul.

It Is the Church that Sticks to the Old Book and the Old Faith

OPEN CHAMBER HOME JUNE 22 WITH PROGRAM

The board of directors of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, in session this morning, selected Monday, June 22, at 8 p. m., as the date for the formal reception to be given in official opening of the new chamber home at St. Ann's Inn.

As tentatively arranged, the reception will be preceded by a parade of members of the senior and junior chambers, led by the Santa Ana municipal band. The musical organization will present a program following arrival at the new building.

Clyde Downing, local attorney, will deliver the address of welcome. There will be other features, possibly including brief addresses by visiting officials from other chambers of commerce in Orange county and Southern California.

Evidencing its interest in "Save the Band Week," starting here next Monday, the board voted a donation of $100 to the fund to be raised by voluntary contributions.

Carl Mock, Stanley Goode, J. C. Wallace, Harry Hanson and Robert L. Brown were named as a committee to arrange details of the parade. It is expected that both men and women will ride in automobiles in the procession.

Following a discussion of conditions existing at the chamber's public auto camp on North Main street, Carl Mock, H. A. Gardner, Ray Chandler and Charles E. Smith were appointed a committee to assume responsibility for proper cleaning up of the grounds and for proper maintenance after they are again placed in order. Criticism was heard on the apparent neglect of the premises during the last several months.

The directors today held their first meeting in the new chamber home. The meeting was preceded by breakfast at the Inn, the board members being guests of the board of directors and the management of the hotel.

The breakfast consisted of cantaloupe, mush, omelette and bacon, hot cakes and coffee, and was a fine demonstration of the efficiency of the hotel in offering a high class meal.

The happy situation resulting from location of the chamber home at St. Ann's was discussed by members of the group, all viewing the situation as one of extreme benefit to each of the organizations.

It was pointed out by speakers that the inn attracted men and women who were really interested in obtaining first hand information as to Santa Ana and vicinity and that the proximity of the chamber would offer opportunity for contact with this class of tourists that would be invaluable to the chamber and to the city.

The breakfast was effective in bringing into closer contact the directors of the Inn and the directors of the booster organization by the presentation of some of the problems of each.

Present at the breakfast were, O. A. Haley, A. L. Oiger, Robert L. Brown, Ray Chandler, J. A. Cranston, Clyde Downing, George Dunton, H. A. Gardner, Guy Gilbert, Stanley Goode, Harry Hanson, W. H. Spurgeon, Bruce Switzer, J. C. Wallace, Walter Vandermaast, chamber directors; A. J. Crookshank, George Shattuck, R. L. Bisby, directors of St. Ann's, Inc., and Mason Yould and Horace Fine, of The Register staff.

Ship Division Gets New Commander

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Rear Adm. William D. MacDougall has been directed to take command of battleship division 4 of the battle fleet on the Pacific coast, the navy department announced today. He replaces Rear Adm. W. V. Pratt, who is called to Washington for duty on the general board.

Wild Driver Is Again In Toils For His Capers

M. H. Crawford, Santa Ana real estate dealer, was arrested last night, at 6 o'clock, after he is alleged to have driven his automobile into another car, frightened several persons off the highway, and finally ran over several small trees and through a vineyard on West Seventeenth street.

Charged with reckless driving, he waived a jury trial, when arraigned before Justice K. E. Morrison today, and his preliminary hearing was set for June 29, at 9 a. m. Bail was set for $250. He had not furnished bail late today.

According to the arresting officer, Chief Criminal Deputy Ed McClellan, F. G. Yoder, motorcycle officer, and Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan, Crawford's "activities" of late yesterday consisted first of forcing a team, driven by W. H. Stennett, off the road; second, forcing an automobile, driven by Mrs. E. L. Ellis, off the road on West Seventeenth street; third, striking an automobile operated by W. E. Ashley, tearing off the left rear wheel, and overturning the car; fourth, driving into a vineyard on the Ashley property, at West Seventeenth and Newhope road, damaging the grape vines and bruising several small fruit trees.

After Crawford landed in the vineyard, Yoder stated that irate citizens rushed to his automobile and held him there, by placing pitchforks and sticks in his wheels. The car was also stuck in the sand.

Crawford broke into the lime-light several months ago, when he was arrested on a charge of driving a car while intoxicated, the charge later being reduced. He was fined in justice court on a charge of reckless driving.

Later, he is said to have had trouble with his wife, and was arrested once on a charge of assault and battery, being arrested by his brother-in-law, W. C. Antoine, at that time a member of the Santa Ana police force.

Following that, his wife obtained a divorce from him on grounds of cruelty.

PACIFIC MAIL SHIP SALE IS ANNOUNCED

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—The first of six giant freighters operated by the Pacific Mail Steamship company in intercoastal trade, will be turned over to the American-Hawaiian Steamship company, in San Francisco on June 18.

Sale of the six steamers was made public here today by Fred A. Hooper, Southern California manager of the American-Hawaiian company. The purchase, which involved several million dollars, was made yesterday in New York from W. R. Grace and company.

The deal means the virtual wiping out of the Pacific Mail's time-honored name from the seas.

The six freighters, which will be turned over to the new owners as they arrive in San Francisco, are the Santa Olivia, Santa Paula, Santa Barbara, Santa Clara, Santa Rosa and Santa Malta. The latter vessel arrives in the northern port on June 18.

Grill Sanguinetti On Witness Stand

YUMA, Ariz., June 11.—E. F. Sanguinetti, millionaire plaintiff in the trial of George W. Lynn, publisher, accused of criminal libel, was put through a brisk grilling when he took the witness stand today.

When attorneys for Lynn questioned Sanguinetti regarding his extensive business enterprises, the witness protested and refused to answer some of the questions.

Judge Bollinger ruled he would have to answer and the lawyers disclosed varied industrial interests of Sanguinetti, which they sought to show was justification of Lynn's published characterization of the plaintiff as "octopus of the desert."

Meanwhile defense counsel continued with their plans to present evidences of alleged tampering with the jury.

Further showing his faith in Santa Ana and its future, F. A. Dickson, president of the Standard-American Glass factory here, has purchased a beautiful 10-room residence, located at 1319 North Broadway, for $25,000, it was learned today.

The property formerly was owned by Mrs. Ida Kradel, who recently sold the Sycamore building, at Third and Sycamore streets for $119,000.

The home, a frame structure, is one of the most beautiful on North Main street, and is said to be well worth the high price it brought.

Brown and Moore, real estate dealers, represented Dickson in the transaction, and Mrs. Kradel was represented by Harry H. Bail, real estate broker.

Santa Ana Gardens

Royalties Go On Standard Lease $1,000 an Acre

Mighty favorable indications point to oil in the 650-acre Standard lease. The derrick is up now, nearly ready to spud in—then!

You know and we all know that if there is oil money can't buy the land.

Everybody knows, also, that the land value is there and always will be there in this district.

No one can lose—but don't wait until we say, "I told you so!"

110 Acre Tract Not Leased $1,500, up, Acre

This is the Largest unleased acreage between Santa Ana and the ocean. Something to think about, eh?

Land values are also present in this section. You are asked $1500 an acre and up for good Orange County soil.

We needn't say what will happen if they get oil at Santa Ana Gardens!

Remember—All Oil Rights Go With the Land!

Lots in Santa Ana Gardens, Unleased, $500 and up

Lots in the subdivided section of Santa Ana Gardens are real values. Forget the oil. They are priced at $500 a lot and upward.

It's an improved section. It has streets, all city conveniences, houses are already built.

The big Standard lease is just south of this property. The land is not leased, all oil rights go to purchasers.

And beside it's a close-in, desirable homesite. A place to live!

"OUR BUSINESS IS DEVELOPING"

WOMEN FUTURE FAMILY HEADS, SAYS FEMINIST

CHICAGO, June 5.—Women are to be the future heads of the family, according to Emily Lloyd, of Chicago, a feminist of note in the central west.

"Many of the things advanced women are striving for are straws," said Miss Lloyd. "But they show the way the wind blows. Getting the votes in itself means little—so also mean little the wearing of trousers, then entrance into the professions and business, or the capture of any of the superficial privileges traditionally enjoyed by men only. But as indications of the gradual feminization of the race, these things mean much. 'Man is the weaker vessel. Only in imperfectly developed races is the strong man master. As culture and intellectual growth advance, the reins of control pass into the woman's hands."

"That women now look up to men and are usually clinging vines and leaning, dependent creatures, idle dolls or indolent playthings, is simply due to the lingering influence of centuries of artificial conditions caused by the universal presence of war."

"The farther we evolve from beasthood, the nearer we approach to a woman-ruled world. Woman has by nature the strength that lies in chastity, loyalty and the appreciation of the higher spiritual qualities of reverence, self-control and idealism. Man is carnal, drunken and earthy, only kept up to the mark by woman's beauty and the enchantment which she casts upon him."

Hoover's Son to Wed at Stanford

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, June 11.—Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover and Mrs. Hoover will attend the marriage of their son, Herbert Hoover Jr., to Miss Margaret Watson on June 25, here.

The younger Hoover and Miss Watson will wed just three days after graduation from the university, in the Stanford Memorial chapel.

The couple announced the engagement a year ago, when both were juniors. Each has been prominent in college life. Hoover was vice president of the student body. Miss Watson, a San Francisco girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Watson, won fame as an athlete. She was president of the Women's Athletic association and a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

The couple will motor to Harvard university for their honeymoon. Young Hoover will follow his father's footsteps and will enroll there for a post-graduate course in mining engineering.

The first aerial passage of the British channel was in 1784, when Francois Blanchard, a Frenchman, and an American companion, made the trip in a balloon.

NAPOLEON PORTRAYED IN NEW GLORIA FILM

Gloria Swanson's new picture, "Madame Sans Gene," the story of a French laundress, who befriended Napoleon in the days of his poverty and was remembered by him in his days of prosperity and power, is at the West End theater.

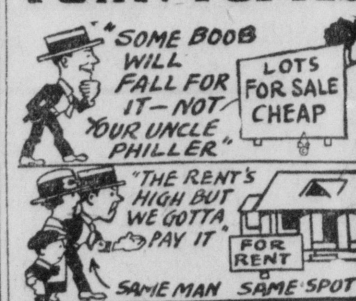

It was while Napoleon was a young lieutenant of artillery that he first met Catherine Hubscher. She had a laundry in the Rue St. Anne in Paris, and there the young officer took his soiled clothes. Incidentally, it was in this street during the recent war, that the American provost-marshal had his headquarters. Many an American soldier who went "A. W. O. L." spent several night almost next door to the spot where Napoleon had his washing done.

Catherine was pretty and outspoken. She didn't know—and if she had known, probably would not have cared—that her impecunious customer was one day to be the greatest figure in the world. Napoleon lived at the Hotel des Patriotes, near her shop, and he owed her, as well as other tradespeople, a long score. When he went into the laundry one day, she was about to ask him for payment, when she noticed that his shoes were worn so that his bare feet showed through. So she simply added the amount to the list and said nothing.

Napoleon, it is said, forgot the bill, but he never forgot her. She married a young sergeant, named Lefebvre, and many years later Catherine and her husband became the Duke and Duchess of Danzig, the former sergeant being made a marshal of France. Catherine never lost her habit of plain speaking and it is history that the tattered and unpaid laundry bill was once used by her to prevent France from committing a grave diplomatic blunder.

HORNSBY SENSATION AS ST. LOUIS PILOT

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

Youth has its established and recognized advantages over age in the field of competitive sports, but there are disadvantages in too much youth.

Golf fans this year have been marvelling at the perfect game of young Bobby Jones, the former amateur and open champion of America. Bobby, from the age of sixteen, was possessed of almost a perfect game, but he did not play perfect golf.

"What has been responsible for the improvement in Bobby's game in the last two years?" a prominent golfer was asked.

"His game hasn't improved," was the answer. "He's just grown up, that's all."

Bobby, who like Willie Hoppe and Vinnie Richards, always will be tagged as the boy wonder, was afflicted with too much youth until he reached his majority and became a business man. He lacked the steadiness of maturity and was overstocked with the carelessness of a boy.

Would Throw Away Clubs
 Bobby has been known to throw away a club when he got away a bad drive or missed a short putt. His temper at times would cause him to lose control of himself in a tight place and at other times he would be cool to the point of absolute carelessness in an extreme situation. During the qualifying rounds of the open championship in Washington several years ago, when almost everything depended upon one hole, he walked up to the tee, bought a bottle of pop from a butcher and emptied the bottle. He also had almost a Babe Ruth mania for pie and hot dogs and no one can play baseball or golf with a pain in the stomach.

One of the first confidential secrets learned about Bobby when he came north for the summer campaign this year was—"Bobby is off of pies, soda and hot dogs." That, in itself, might be taken as evidence that Bobby has grown up. Perhaps Babe Ruth has grown up also since he spent seven weeks in a hospital as a result of eating steaks trimmed with pork chops and fried potatoes.

Was Boy Wonder at 17
 Vinnie Richards was the boy wonder of the courts when he was 17 years of age. His game developed almost to the point of perfection, but he was not able to approach the genius of a Tilden until two years ago. Vinnie hadn't grown out of the boy wonder stage and his game stayed with him—a boy's game.

Last year Vinnie improved so much that he won the Olympic singles and doubles championship and was ranked second under Tilden among the American tennis players. He went about the game seriously last year. He wanted to win every time out. He trained and took care of himself. He grew into a man and his game went along with him.

In marked contrast to the cases of Jones and Richards was that of Miss Helen Wills, the American Olympic singles champion. Miss Wills was a sensation at 16 and was a champion at 18 because there was no youthful carelessness or temperament in her game. She was a mere youngster with the poise and steadiness of a veteran. She was so cool under fire on the courts that she was dubbed—"Little Miss Pokerface."

Played Like Champion
 Mrs. Molla Mallory reigned as the queen of the American courts for years. She had a champion's game, of course, but there were other girls with a better game. They had more shots and better execution, but they couldn't out-nerve or out-steady the champion. It always was apparent in tight matches that opponents of Mrs. Mallory had uppermost in mind—"she is the champion—she is the champion"—which, of course, developed an inferiority complex.

Not so with Miss Wills, however. She had pig-tails hanging down her back when she met Mrs. Mallory for the first time, but there was nothing in her actions that suggested she was the slightest bit overawed by a contest that she must have known was going against her. She played with the attitude—"I am Helen Wills and I'm good."

With her and it is one of the most vital factors in her game. Every girl playing tennis knows that the young champion cannot be rattled and that nothing can upset her. The assurance of her game has even upset the morale of Mrs. Mallory, who always has been considered immune to any disturbance.

GOOD MANAGER HELD BENEFIT TO ATHLETES

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
 (United Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, June 11.—Knute Rockne, the wizard football coach and who is almost as capable as an after-dinner speaker, is as modest as he is efficient. On numerous occasions he has publicly minimized the importance of coaching and voiced the opinion that success in developing football teams depends entirely upon the material.

"All I did last season was blow up the football," he said recently in commenting on the Notre Dame varsity eleven. Tad Jones, who has turned out some of Yale's best football teams in the last three years, is another prominent coach who stresses the importance of players over systems of plays, but any one who follows football knows that eleven All-American players would not defeat an ordinary team unless they had something to work on.

The stories of Rockne and Jones, applied to other lines of sport as well as football are interesting, however.

Good Seconds Needed
 The importance of a good second in a fighter's corner, a smart manager on a major league bench or a good trainer with a track team are questions upon which all authorities do not agree. The majority opinions, perhaps, are that success depends upon a combination of both—a good individual and a good instructor or adviser.

It always has been held that Jess Willard would not have lost the world's heavyweight championship to Jack Dempsey in Toledo if he had retained a good trainer and if he had secured some experienced second to back him up in his corner. Big Firpo might have taken the title away from Dempsey if he had been trained properly and if he had been backed by some one smart enough to claim a foul when Dempsey forgot all about the rules in the first round.

The importance of management on a professional ball club is recognized, but it is sometimes overstressed. John McGraw is supposed to operate on the theory that even such a high-class team as his New York Giants have to have their thinking done for them.

About Earl Sande
 In the case of Earl Sande, however, there seems to be little doubt that his victories are more the result of Sande's skill than the speed of the horse flesh under him. When Sande was riding for the Rancocas Stable or Harry Sinclair he always had a good mount, but since he changed employers and found the opportunity of working offener as a free lance he has shown that he doesn't need a Zev under him to get first under the wire.

Sande's remarkable ride in winning the classic Kentucky Derby with Gifford Cochran's Flying Ebony made one of the most romantic tales in the history of the sport and gave the boy a rating as one of the greatest jockeys of all times. Turf riders said that Sande fairly "gathered his colt up in his arms" and threw him over the line as a winner.

NATIONAL COLLEGE CLASSIC NEXT ON TRACK MEET LIST

In the accompanying layout are shown some of the stars of the collegiate world who are expected to vie for supremacy at the annual national college track and field classic which will be held at a Stagg field, Chicago, tomorrow and Saturday.

'MUDHENS,' RANK OUTSIDERS, CINCH FIVE-MAN TEAM EVENT IN S. A. BOWLING TOURNAMENT

Crashing their way through the last frame of the last game in the finest of "come through" fashion, the Mudhens, facetiously termed so because they were considered the rankest of outsiders, cinched first place in the five-man event in the Santa Ana Bowling Congress at the A. and B. alleys last night. The Mudhens got 2703 pins.

The Outlaws forced the winners to the limit, crashing the woodpile for 2674 sticks. The issue was in doubt until the final inning when the Mudhens staged their sensational rally.

Members of the champion team were Bert West, Bernard Parker, "Rich" Richardson and L. R. Crawford. Crawford had best individual game of 220 and high series of 575 for the quintette.

Last night's scoring forced the A. and B. Specialists who rolled into first place Monday night with 2606 maps, down to third place and pushed the Gingham Dogs and Calico Cats, who were second, clear out of the money.

The Congress will be completed tonight when more than a score of crack bowlers go after the doubles and singles leaders. Max Ames and Roy Keeler are ahead in the doubles with 1699 and are followed by Ed Richards and Horace Snow with 1075 and "Husky" Holmes and Harry Schwartz with 1056. Three Anaheim bowlers lead the 170 and up class singles. Karam is first with 591, Gamboa second with 577 and Heffron third with 570.

Harry Baker tops the 169 and less division with 593 while Henry Stradman is second with 564 and Barney Snee third with 532.

Tonight's doubles schedule follows: 7 o'clock squad—Besser and Richardson; Jones and Cook; B. Parker and Torrens; 9 o'clock squad—Crawford and Newcomer; O'Donnell and F. West; Gordon and E. West; Karam and G. Parker.

CHICAGO, June 11.—With the Eastern Intercollegiate, Western Conference and Pacific Coast championships now out of the way, the next track and field competition of note will be the annual National College classic.

This will be staged at Stagg Field here tomorrow and Saturday. And judging from present indications will be the most pretentious of its kind yet held.

About 40 universities and colleges from all parts of the country will be represented. From the far west, south, east and middle west, the stars of the athletic world will come to vie for supremacy. In a word, it's the piece de resistance in collegiate track and field activities.

Southern California, winner of the recent eastern affair, is expected to bring its team of stars, among them "Bud" Houser, sensational weight man; Dye and Grumbles, hurdlers; Norman Anderson and others of lesser caliber.

Hartnraft in Meet
 California will be on hand with Hampton, high jumper; the Dodson boys, and so on. Stanford has entered Glenn Hartnraft, its great shot-putter and discus thrower who holds the world's record in the latter event.

Among the eastern schools Penn State, Holy Cross and Georgetown are expected to be well represented. The Nittany Lions will have Charley Moore, hurdler, as their outstanding figure.

In the middle west, Michigan, Wisconsin, Ohio State and other Big Ten institutions will send their stars against the pick of the country, while Missouri, Nebraska and other non-Western Conference teams will enter men in the classic.

Many Close Careers
 For many of the athletes it will be the last appearance as college performers. For instance, DeHart Hubbard, Michigan, for one, will terminate three years of remarkable

FULLERTON CHANGES DATE OF S. B. GAME

Announcement was made today by Coach "Shorty" Smith of the Fullerton high school, that the game with San Bernardino for the baseball championship of Southern California in baseball will be played at Fullerton tomorrow, at 2:30 o'clock, instead of Saturday.

Coach Smith gave the men their hardest workout of the season yesterday. The players were put through an hour of stiff putting practice, and then drilled thoroughly in infield work. A half-mile run around the track ended the grind.

Ample bleacher space to take care of a large crowd has been provided by school authorities. Car owners will be allowed to park their automobiles inside the field during the game.

Rivers Picked to Beat Tommy Ryan

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—George Rivers who meets Buffalo Tommy Ryan at the Hollywood American Legion stadium tomorrow night, is booked as a slight favorite over the out-of-town boy.

And there are other stars, too, whose names are by-words in collegiate athletic circles, who will be carrying the colors of their schools for the final time.

Two years ago, Michigan, boasting a galaxy of stars, romped off with the affair in easy fashion. But this season a far closer struggle is anticipated, with several teams apparently having a splendid chance to win.

LOCALS SPANK HOLLYWOOD IN INDOOR OPENER

Santa Ana's all-star indoor baseball team, representing the Junior Chamber of Commerce, was off to a running start for the Southern California title today following its 8 to 2 victory over Hollywood at Hollywood last night.

Young Tommy Hitt, son of Roy Hitt, once the premier left hand pitcher of the Pacific Coast league, was on the knoll for the locals and simply burned up the opposition with his fast breaking underhand fire-balls. Only four batters got to first on him, one on a single, two on passes and one on an error.

While their kid pitcher was setting the foe down in the first inning, the Junior Chamber tribe was passing Munsey, Hollywood hurler, for ten safeties of which eight were of the extra base variety.

Wayne Nelson, playing center field, shared the evening's spotlight with Hitt. Nelson made a couple of sensational catches, a beautiful throw to the plate that trapped a runner, slapped out two two-baggers and did divers other things to make himself a nuisance in the movie city.

Santa Ana scored its first run in the second frame when Nelson walked and completed the circuit while Lutz, Cole and Jerome were going out infield.

Hollywood scored its two tallies in its half of the same frame. The score rang along at 2 to 1 until the sixth when the Junior Chambermen broke loose with four counters. With one away, Hitt started things with a double. Echols fanned but Snow walked. Wilcox singled and Nelson and Everett Lutz doubled.

Successive doubles by Don Jerome and "Pee-wee" Scott accounted for the locals' closing tally in the seventh.

Santa Ana is in the National division of the Southern California league and is grouped with Orange, Long Beach, Whittier, Monrovia and Hollywood. The next league session is scheduled for June 19 with Orange and will be played at Poly field here.

A practice battle has been booked for next Monday night here with Long Beach.

INSTILLS NEW SPIRIT, DASH IN CARD CLUB

Blasts Theory That Player Can't Be Good Manager; Team Pennant Contender

NEW YORK, June 11.—Rogers Hornsby, the star playing manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, is the latest sensation in the major leagues.

Leading the major leagues in home run hitting, setting the batting pace in the national league and handling the most improved club in baseball, Hornsby has taken another sock at that already blasted theory that a star player cannot be a star manager.

In ten days as a manager Hornsby has taken a club that was going nowhere in particular and transformed it into a threat for the pennant. He has the same players that Branch Rickey had but he has instilled a new spirit.

The burden of management, seemed to act as a spur on Hornsby for he has increased his batting average 55 points since he took the reins of the club and has taken first place among the home run hitters with a total of 16 clouts. He has won three games by his individual hitting.

Seven pitchers have started games and finished them since the "Rajah" gamely accepted the race. He has taken the job of handling a club that had been one of baseball's biggest disappointments. Rickey was one of the master mind school of managers. Like John McGraw, he thought better results could be obtained by doing the thinking for his players and relieving them of all mental burden. While McGraw was away from the Giants for six weeks, Hughey Jennings, his assistant, tried the experiment of letting the players think a little on their own and the experiment was a great success.

Many pitchers sought to know how to play their own positions or they could not be in the major league," Hornsby said when he took over the management of the club.

"I'm going to let them do their own thinking. I want their advice even when it comes to removing a pitcher from the mound or a pinch hitter. I'm not going to lead them. I'm going along with them."

KOLOFF EASY PREY FOR CHAMP STECHER

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—Joe Stecher, heavyweight wrestler, today increased his claim to the world's heavyweight wrestling championship. Stecher defeated Dan Koloff, Bulgarian grappler, in a two straight falls at a exhibition park armory last night.

The first fall was given to Stecher on a foul, Koloff madly rushing him into the ropes after 40 minutes and 6 seconds of wrestling. The second fall came 14 minutes later when Stecher clamped his famous leg scissor hold around his opponent. Three thousand persons attended the matches.

Joe Bonomo defeated Papiano in the first match of the evening. Hans Steinke defeated Jack Palmmini and Renato Gardini headlocked Joe Komarek to win the other bout of the evening.

COLIMA, HUFFMAN TO MEET AT VERNON

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—Bert Colima and Eddie Huffman who seem to have been playing hide and seek for many months may get close enough to tax each other some time in July. The dope, as handed down by Jack Doyle is that he has practically signed the pair for a bout.

NEW ENGLAND THRIFT SHOWN BY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, June 11.—President Coolidge has disclosed himself to the country as a conservationist—in fact, conservation is the fundamental principle of his governmental philosophy, according to students of the chief executive's policies.

His conservation is not of the Roosevelt brand. It has little to do with the treasuring of natural resources like coal and oil. The Coolidge conservation is allied to the typical thrift for which New England is famed. He believes in saving everything and wasting nothing.

Again and again he has emphasized the necessity of saving. His two most famous policies, tax reduction and economy, are but phases of his belief in the conservation of the taxpayer's money. His campaign last fall was founded on governmental conservation, the preservation of the constitution from amendment.

In no speech he has made since becoming president has he failed to impress upon his audience some angle of his general conservation policy. Generally it has been emphasis of his drive for tax reduction and economy in government. Occasionally he has varied this to recommend increased economy for business and private persons.

Next in importance after his campaign for conservation in government finances has been his advocacy of conservation in government itself. In speech after speech he has reiterated his belief that the government should interest itself as little as possible in the private affairs of the people. He has declared that government activities should be limited to those absolutely necessary. His ideal of government is one in which the government can be allowed to regulate the most of their own affairs.

In personal habits no less than his formal addresses President Coolidge has exhibited his belief in conservation. He dresses well, but he wastes nothing on ostentation. He does his work without wasted effort. Above all he wastes neither time nor words. The business of the executive offices is transacted without fuss or friction.

Even in his recreations he follows the principle of conservation. He does not play golf because it takes so much time to dress and go to and from the links. Walking and riding his electric horse are his principal forms of exercise, because in each he secures the maximum amount of exercise with a minimum amount of lost time.

LIKES PRISON HOME BUT WILL NOT SAY WORD

LISBON, June 11.—Seven years without having uttered a word, despite possession of all his faculties, coupled with a determination to live in jail in preference to a life of freedom, have made Ivan Gluchosa known to everyone in Lisbon.

He is a mystery to the police, who have on more than one occasion shown him the prison doors, and the people seemingly never tire of speculating why the voluntary "silent prisoner" never says a word.

A policeman picked Ivan up one summer night in 1918, asleep on a park bench, and ran him in. Questioned he refused to answer. Papers in his pockets gave his name, and his nationality, Rumanian, and the fact that he had belonged to the crew of a foreign steamer that had left port the day of his arrest. In jail, he behaved himself, but spoke never a word. His time up, the prison authorities sent Ivan to the Rumanian consul, but not a word would he say. The perplexed consul sent him back to the prison, where he remained for three years quietly, peacefully and contentedly, but absolutely silent.

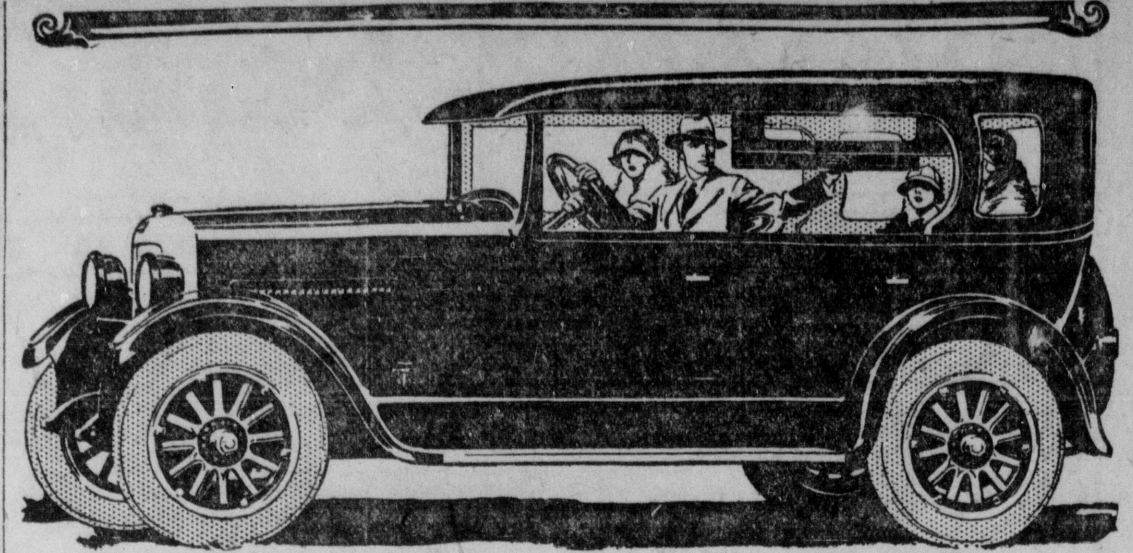

Physicians have pronounced Ivan normal in every way, and established the fact that he enjoys listening to the singing of birds. He has been insulted and abused in his own language, and in most others, but he never showed he heard what was said. Traps have been set for him, but all is of no avail. Ivan has determined not to speak.

At the end of three years the prison authorities gave this silent man a new outfit of clothes and a pocketful of money and set him free. But at the gate he shrank back and refused to leave the sheltering walls.

Four years have passed since then. Today Ivan is assistant prison cook, but he will accept no money for his work. Occasionally he goes out on business connected with the kitchen, but from these excursions he returns with manifestations of joy. He loves his job, he loves his prison home and he finds joy in his self-imposed silence.

S. A. MAN WINS PAVING WORK IN FULLERTON

FULLERTON, June 11.—Steele Finley company, Santa Ana contractors, were awarded bids for paving of North Nicholas avenue here last night at a meeting of the board of trustees of the city. Figures compiled by W. C. Record, city engineer, showed that Finley's bid of $7,983.84 was $633.97 higher than the Los Angeles paving company, which was $8,677.81.

An ordinance which was introduced at the last meeting of the council, passed its second reading last night. Protection of the city's ornamental electric fixtures is the aim of the new bill, as it states that no bus, truck or commercial vehicle may pass within five feet of a lamp post.

The ordinance also states that any driver damaging one of the lamp-posts shall report the accident within 24 hours, or he is liable to arrest. This ordinance was made necessary because of the great damage which has been done to the lighting fixtures in the past, and of the lack of reports from those who did the damage.

Members of the city council last night reported that truckmen, who are not allowed to unload their vehicles on the city streets, are complaining that they are not meeting with co-operation of the merchants as back doors are often left locked. The help of the merchants in carrying out the recent ordinance which makes it unlawful for the truckmen to work on the business streets, will be asked by the council.

World Traveler Speaker Before Rotary Members

FULLERTON, June 11.—Dr. Walter Bigham, well known world traveler of Anaheim, entertained the Fullerton Rotarians yesterday at their meeting in McFarland's cafe, with an interesting lecture on his travels, telling of Egypt, the conditions to be found there, and of the many beautiful sights which were enjoyed by tourists.

When telling of the University of Cairo, Dr. Bigham told members of the luncheon club that there were 15,000 students enrolled in the institution, and that all of them were forced to sleep on floors or small shelves, and were forced to eat the poorest of food in order to receive their education.

Study in Egypt, he said, is confined chiefly to the Koran, from which all of the learning primarily comes. Thirteen years of study are necessary for a student to complete a course in the university, he said.

Following his announcement that yesterday would be his last appearance before the Rotarians, as he was leaving immediately for New York, Harold de Grosse, well known singer of Whittier, entertained the members of the luncheon club with two solos which were highly appreciated. He was accompanied on the piano by his wife.

Boys Confess Life of 'Crime' To Police Chief

FULLERTON, June 11.—With tears streaming from their eyes, their lips quivering, and yet insisting upon seeing the chief of police, three young boys appeared at the local police department and declared that they had broken the law, and wanted to confess.

When brought before Chief O. W. Wilson, the three youngsters declared that they had found a "life of crime" too hard to bear, and wanted to "make a clean breast of everything." They were supplied with paper and pencils, and disposed a horrible list of crimes, including theft of a dozen doughnuts, from one of the boy's grandmother, a number of marbles, a tennis ball and a penny.

Following the confession, the boys had a heart-to-heart talk with Chief Wilson, promised to "go straight," and left with resolutions never to enter the field of crime again.

PLAY OF ROMANCE, PIRATES TO BE GIVEN BY SENIORS AT FULLERTON HIGH SCHOOL

Above is a scene from "Captain Applejack," a play to be given Friday and Saturday evenings by the senior class of Fullerton Union high school in the school auditorium. Alyce Parks and Lee O'Kelly as leaders of the thieves who come to rob the squire and who, in the second act, appear as members of the mutinying crew on the pirate ship.

FULLERTON, June 11.—Have you ever longed for romance and adventure?

Have you ever wished you could be a pirate or something "just for a night" and drink your fill of excitement, love and adventure?

That's what Victor Hausman did in the part of a young English squire, the hero of "Captain Applejack," a three-act "Arabian nights adventure" which the senior class of the Fullerton Union high school will present next Friday and Saturday nights, June 12 and 13, in the school auditorium.

Disgusted with the monotonous life he leads a rich but lonely English country squire, Hausman decides to sell his estate and go forth on the quest of adventure and romance. He advertises the place for sale. Crooks read the advertisement and plot to rob the mansion posing as prospective buyers. The squire learns of their intention and decides to sit up all night to await them. He falls asleep and dreams that he is a pirate, "Captain Applejack," and that the crooks he is expecting are his mutinying crew. His imaginary adventures as a "pirate" are realistically portrayed in the second act.

A delightful story handled by a very efficient cast of young people. The following students will constitute the cast: Victor Hausman, Lucy Peterson, Katherine Curley, Gertrude Wents, Helen Ellis, John Barnett, Alice Corcoran, Alyce Parks, Lee O'Kelly, Louis Velasco, Audrey Reeve, Genevieve Hart, Ted Juckerman, Verne McDermott, Delores Ferrel, Beulah Nelson, Charles Petty, Lloyd Keniston, Hansel Carter, Homer Tidwell and Marvin Webber.

One of the features of the evening will be a duet by James Preble and John Farrar. Songs by the eighth grade girls glee club and by the boys' glee club will also be given. The eighth grade class will present the closing song, "Vacation Glee."

JETTY REPAIR TO SAVE LIGHT TO START SOON

NEWPORT BEACH, June 11.—Work on repairing the jetty to save the government range light, will be done at once, according to a report made by Chairman Geo. P. Wilson to the board of trustees today.

Mr. Wilson stated that the matter had been taken up with the board of supervisors who agreed to pay the bill and requesting the city of Newport Beach to secure an estimate of the cost. Mr. Wilson had received a bid from the McGaffey Barge company, which would bring in a barge of rock, totaling about 150 tons and put it in place for $1600. If two barges of rock were needed the price would be $2500.

Mr. Wilson stated the supervisors agreed to the plan and the work will be undertaken at once. The range light, installed by the government lighthouse department last year, was in danger of sinking, and orders had been received by Antares Deraga, in charge of the lights, to remove it if there was any danger of losing the equipment.

Civic Club Head Urges Members to Continue Labors

BALBOA, June 11.—Striving to make a bigger and better organization in order that the civic work of the community may be improved, Mabel O. Garfield, retiring president of the Civic League of Newport Beach, presented a splendid annual report of the work accomplished the past year. Mrs. Garfield said in part:

"While the league is young in actual years, its accomplishments to date should rank high in the pride of our fellow citizens and I know that the group of earnest women working on the banner of the Woman's Civic League is ever earning the admiration and commendation of the community in their unselfish efforts for civic betterment."

"May I, at this time, call attention to one very important matter that I feel we should each and every one of us strive to remedy. Let us work and preach for better attendance at meetings. It is a very humiliating fact that out of a membership of 87, the average attendance during the year has been little more than a quorum."

"Another matter which is of great importance and should command the active interest and enthusiasm of us all, is the building fund and its growth toward the longed-for day when we may own our home and thus enjoy the dignity and satisfaction to which I feel we are entitled. We have now in the building fund about $400. Half of this was raised this year. Let us work persistently toward this end, continue our bazaars, food sales, rummage sales, even our nickel march, which is profitable as well as a diversion during our meetings."

CHOOSE SUMMER SCHOOL HEAD

FULLERTON, June 11.—Martin DeVries, a teacher at the local high school, was chosen to head the summer school, which will be held here for six weeks after the close of the regular term. R. W. Borst resigned the position, which he had held up to this time, at a meeting of the faculty held last night.

ALARM CLOCK RINGS, SCARES ROBBER AWAY

SEAL BEACH, June 11.—The Willard apartments on Central avenue, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Willard Smith, was visited by a burglar early Tuesday morning. The thief provided against discovery by hanging quilts and blankets over doors and windows to exclude the light and was making a systematic search when he accidentally knocked over an alarm clock. With the warning buzz of the alarm he fled, making his escape before the aroused inmates could realize what was happening. A large man in a gray suit of clothes was the description furnished the police by a boy, awakened by the noise, who saw the thief hastily departing. A box of raisins, picked up in the hall by Mrs. Smith, gave evidence that the intruder was seeking food as well as money.
